

CMS Satellite Meeting - Program

Blo21 Institute, 30 Flemington Road, Parkville, Melbourne, Victoria

Friday 18 September 2026

0830	Welcome
0845-0945	Session 1: Opening Plenary - Dr Rachel Carling "The AI revolution and its impact on clinical mass spectrometry"
0945-1015	Morning Tea, Industry Displays & Posters
1015-1200	Session 2: What's New in Mass Spectrometry? 1. Daniella Hock - Bio21 Institute - Proteomics 2. Vic Institute of Forensic Medicine - Toxicology 3. Rohan Steel - Proteomics for Peptide based Drugs 4. Rachel Carling - What's new in Mass Spectrometry
1200-1300	Lunch, Industry Displays & Posters
1300-1430	Session 3: Selected Oral Presentations
1430-1445	Power Break - Afternoon Tea, Industry Displays & Posters
1445-1630	Session 4: Transitioning from Laboratory Developed Tests (LDT) to In Vitro Diagnostic (IVD) kits 1. Dr Chung Shun (CS) Ho - Opportunities of IVD kits 2. Avis McWhinney - Limitations of IVD kits 3. Dr Gus Koerbin - Validation versus verification 4. Andrew Griffin - The NATA perspective
1630-1800	Networking Drinks
1930-2200	Optional Dinner, venue Universita Bar Ristorante, 257 Lygon Street, Carlton

Saturday 19 September 2026

0900-0905	Welcome to Day 2
0905-1000	Session 5: Automation of Mass Spectrometry Keynote speaker Dr Russell Grant
1000-1030	Morning Tea, Industry Displays & Posters
1030-1200	Session 6: Next Generation Clinical Mass Spectrometry Interactive Panel Discussion - Dr Chung Shun (CS) Ho
1200-1300	Lunch, Industry Displays & Posters
1300-1500	Session 7: Next Generation Clinical Mass Spectrometry - the Vendors Perspective
1500-1530	Afternoon Tea, Industry Displays
1530-1630	Session 8: Interactive Sessions Summary and Closing
1630-1640	Presentation of Prizes and Close of Proceedings