This is a rare opportunity for Medical Practitioners wishing to further develop their skills in assessing and managing acute abdominal conditions in remote locations. This one-day workshop will enable you to observe and practice operative techniques on human tissue with particular focus on:

- Assessing the acute abdomen
- Abdominal anatomy
- Acute appendicitis
- Skills for appendicectomy/
Open appendicectomy
- Other emergency abdominal procedures such as damage control laparotomy, bowel resection, and stoma formation.
- (Peri)operative troubleshooting/
Postoperative management
