A MESSAGE FROM OUR CHAIRPERSON

Thank you for your interest in supporting SNAICC's upcoming conference.

The SNAICC National Conference is one of the largest Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander-focused conferences in Australia. The event gives Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and non-Indigenous organisations, policy makers, researchers, educators, front line support workers, government representatives and students the opportunity to gather and share knowledge and experience while renewing commitment to improving outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and families.

SNAICC'25 – the 11th SNAICC National Conference will be held at the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre (BCEC) in Meanjin/Brisbane on the lands of the Turrbal and Yuggera people from October 7-9.

It comes after our successful SNAICC'23 in Garramilla/Darwin, where Territorians turned on an amazing array of cultural experiences and learning and networking opportunities.

We are excited to build on this at SNAICC'25 and experience the richness and diversity of Queensland's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture.

The conference will bring together on the ground frontline experts, community members and high-level decision makers to share their unique perspectives on what they have learned in building systems and practices that support our children and families to thrive. With an expected 2,000 delegates, the conference will feature a range of presentations, discussion panels and interactive workshops with the voice of children and young people a focus throughout the program. The conference will also incorporate a Market Hall showcasing a mix of service exhibitors and First Nations retailers, artists and makers.

All sponsors will receive acknowledgement of their support in various ways before the conference and at the event itself, including logo placement on promotional materials, the official conference website and during proceedings. You will find a detailed outline of each opportunity on the following pages.

The support of agencies and organisations through conference sponsorship and exhibition makes a significant contribution to the sector and helps enable SNAICC's work. Your support contributes to SNAICC's work in closing the gap and providing opportunities for our children and families to thrive. SNAICC'25 provides a unique opportunity to promote your organisation and its services to a national audience.

I look forward to seeing you in Meanjin/Brisbane next year.

Muriel Bamblett

Chairperson, SNAICC – National Voice for our Children

ABOUT SNAICC

SNAICC is the national non-government peak body for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and families. We amplify their voices, advocating for their right to grow up healthy, strong and self-determined and connected to culture and Community.

We represent Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, families, communities and organisations to Australian governments and advise on strategy and actions to close the gap and ensure children have every opportunity to thrive.

We do this through influencing sustained positive systemic and institutional change at every level. Working in partnership is at the core of what we do, whether it is designing new systems and policy, strengthening our sector, and bringing their stories to a wide audience.

We celebrate, amplify and share stories of success across many platforms, with the biennial SNAICC national conference a key event connecting Aboriginal community-controlled organisations from every corner of the country with decision-makers and influencers.

Our work with the government and sector aims to improve opportunities and outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and families. We advocate for and support the development of critical services to improve access to holistic, culturally safe and wraparound services for those who need them. By doing so, we harness the potential of communities to effect genuine and long-term change for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and families across Australia.

SUPPORTING SNAICC'25

SNAICC'25 will be held from 7-9 October 2025 in Meanjin/Brisbane on the beautiful lands of the Turrbal and Yuggera peoples. It will give delegates a safe space to learn, share and network about early childhood education and care, and child protection issues that impact Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

The conference will bring together like-minded individuals and organisations for a celebration of culture and country, focused on the work we do to elevate the voices of our children and families. For more information, please visit:

WHERE IS IT?

SNAICC'25 will be held at the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre (BCEC) at Glenelg Street, South Brisbane, Queensland.

BCEC is the only convention centre in Australia with a dedicated and permanent art gallery space – the Plaza Gallery – which SNAICC'25 delegates will be able to enjoy throughout the conference.
