RACS was formed in 1927, and is the leading advocate for surgical standards, professionalism and surgical education in Australia and New Zealand. RACS has nine offices in Australia and New Zealand. RACS is a not-for-profit organisation that represents more than 7,000 surgeons and 1,300 surgical trainees and International Medical Graduates and has over 231 administrative and support staff across Australia and New Zealand.

RACS supports healthcare and surgical education in the Asia-Pacific region and is a substantial funder of surgical research. RACS trains nine surgical specialties: Cardiothoracic Surgery, General Surgery, Neurosurgery, Orthopaedic Surgery, Otolaryngology Head-and-Neck Surgery, Paediatric Surgery, Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, Urology and Vascular Surgery.

RACS is committed to ensuring the highest standard of safe and comprehensive surgical care for the community by achieving excellence in surgical education, training, professional development and support.

RACS is committed to contributing to improving the health inequities of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. Our vision for reconciliation is for no health discrepancies to exist between the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and non-Indigenous populations of Australia.

Committed to Indigenous health
