

SE QLD Safety Symposium 2026

PROSPECTUS

An Invitation

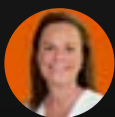

Dear Industry Leader,

The Australian Institute of Health & Safety (AIHS) invites you to partner with us in the 2026-27 Health & Safety Symposium series.

In a time of rapid change – from psychosocial hazards and climate impacts to evolving legislation and new technologies – the WHS profession is being reshaped. This series brings together hundreds of professionals and decision-makers to explore these shifts and develop real-world strategies for safer workplaces and progressive cultures that not only reduce harm but also pro-actively improve wellbeing amongst it's staff at the same time.

As a sponsor, you'll gain access to a highly engaged audience, enhance your brand visibility, and demonstrate your leadership in health and safety. Our tailored sponsorship packages offer a range of options – from speaking opportunities and digital promotion to on-site activations – all designed to help you connect with key influencers in the WHS space.

These Symposiums are more than events – they're critical gatherings for the WHS community at a pivotal time. Join us as a partner in shaping the future of workplace health and safety.
