

Supporting the next generation of psychologists

We guide*We educate*We advocate

As Australia's peak psychology body, we are dedicated to delivering everything you need to perform at your best, as you navigate through your studies.

From staying informed about scientific and policy developments, taking advantage of ethical and practice resources, accessing professional advice and career guidance, to connecting with other members who share your passion for psychology.

Membership is only $40 per year
- less than a coffee a month

SCAN THE QR CODE TO

Connect, learn,
grow and succeed
Join APS today

APS Code of ethics & ethical guidelines
Understand your ethical obligations and how they apply to different settings.

Branches & Interest groups
Connect with members in your local area and join one or many of our interest groups to broaden your understanding of emerging trends in psychology.

Weekly insights newsletter
Stay updated on industry and advocacy news that can influence your future, the latest research plus exclusive member offers throughout the year.

Member services
Call or email the team for guidance on study pathways, finding a supervisor or making the most of your membership. They're experts in everything APS.

Premium professional development
Access free and discounted courses to enhance your knowledge and elevate your academic outcomes.