

2019 APS College of Clinical Neuropsychologists Conference

Neuropsychology in Partnership

7 – 9 NOVEMBER | Barossa Valley

psychology.org.au/APS-CCN-Conf/2019

Thursday, November 7, 2019

|                     | Shiraz Room A                                                                                                                                   | Shiraz Room B                                                                                                                               | Cabernet Room A & B                                                                                                                                                 |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                     | Day 1 Theme: Rehab and interventions                                                                                                            | Day 1 Theme: Older adults                                                                                                                   | Day 1 Theme: Acute                                                                                                                                                  |
| 8:30 AM - 10:30 AM  | ID #24 Workshop:Giving effective and meaningful neuropsychological assessment feedback                                                      | ID #17 Workshop:Memory group interventions for older adults: Evidence-base, research translation, and practical application.            | ID #46 Workshop:NPA Psychotherapy adjustment adult TBI workshop                                                                                                 |
| 10:30 AM - 11:00 AM | Day 1: Morning tea                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM | ID #24 Workshop continues                                                                                                                       | ID #17 Workshop continues                                                                                                                   | ID #46 Workshop continues                                                                                                                                           |
| 12:00 PM - 12:20 PM | ID #33 Oral Research Paper:Driving simulator rehabilitation after acquired brain injury: Intervention development and user experiences      | ID #14 Oral Research Paper:Cognitive training for older adults with dementia: An updated Cochrane Review                                | ID #23 Oral Research PaperExploring player factors associated with head acceleration events in elite AFL/AFLW players                                           |
| 12:20 PM - 12:40 PM | ID #44 Oral Research Paper:Therapeutic outcomes following neuropsychological assessment feedback: a randomised controlled trial with cross- | ID #48 Oral Research Paper:Detection of neurodegenerative disorders in the elderly using sorting tests: A meta-analysis                 | ID #21 Oral Research PaperPotential utility of a sensor device to augment concussion screening in AFL/AFLW                                                      |
| 12:40 PM - 1:00 PM  | ID #31 Oral Research Paper:Targeting Executive Functioning in Residential Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation                                   |                                                                                                                                             | ID #30 Oral Research Paper:Bouncing Back: The Effect of Lifestyle Behaviours on Recovery after Paediatric Concussion                                            |
| 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM   | Day 1: Lunch                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                     | Day 1 Theme: Rehab and interventions continued                                                                                                  | Day 1 Theme: Older adults continued                                                                                                         | Day 1 Theme: Mental Health                                                                                                                                          |
| 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM   | ID #34 Symposium:Utilising telehealth to provide neuropsychological assessment and rehabilitation services: opportunities and challenges    | ID #13 'How to' Session:CogTale: Evaluation, synthesis, dissemination of evidence regarding cognitive interventions for older adults    | ID #29 'How to' SessionComing clean: Neuropsychology in substance use and addiction.                                                                            |
| 3:00 PM - 3:20 PM   |                                                                                                                                                 | ID #50 Oral Research Paper:CogSCAN: Cross-comparison and validation of four computer-administered neuropsychological batteries in older | ID #12 Oral Research Paper:Exposure Therapy in a Virtual Environment                                                                                            |
| 3:20 PM - 3:40 PM   |                                                                                                                                                 | ID #39 Oral Research Paper:Measuring computer experience and attitudes to inform performance on computerised cognitive testing          | ID #06 Oral Research Paper:Transdiagnostic symptom clusters and associations with psychological, cognitive and neurobiological function in compulsive behaviour |
| 3:40 PM - 4:00 PM   |                                                                                                                                                 | ID #42 Oral Research Paper:Validating a multi-domain subjective cognitive index: Relationship with objective cognitive performance      | ID #28 Oral Research Paper:Changes in personality following deep brain stimulation: patient, caregiver and clinician perspectives                               |
| 4:00 PM - 4:30 PM   | Day 1: Afternoon tea                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 4:30 PM - 4:45 PM   | Conference WelcomeShiraz Room A & B                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 4:45 PM - 5:45 PM   | Keynote address: A/Professor Benjamin HampsteadShiraz Room A & B                                                                            |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 5:45 PM - 7:15 PM   | Welcome reception                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                     |

Friday, November 8, 2019

|                     | Shiraz Room A                                                                                                                                  | Shiraz Room B                                                                                                                               | Cabernet Room A & B                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                     | Day 2 Theme: Older adults                                                                                                                      | Day 2 Theme: Paediatric                                                                                                                     | Day 2 Theme: Forensic / Acute                                                                                                           |
| 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM  | ID #54 'How to' SessionKeynote Speaker: A/Professor Benjamin Hampstead                                                                     | ID #38 Workshop:Concussion Essentials: A Paediatric Concussion Workshop                                                                 | ID #49 Professional Forum:Fitness to stand trial: the diverse experience of uncovering the truth                                    |
| 11:00 AM - 11:30 AM | Day 2: Morning tea                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                         |
| 11:30 AM - 11:50 AM | ID #41 Oral Research Paper:Rigid Thinking is a Core Deficit in Frontotemporal Dementia                                                     | ID #38 Workshop continues...                                                                                                                | ID #9 Oral Research Paper:Delusional disorder following stroke?Forensic case report involving distribution of child pornography |
| 11:50 AM - 12:10 PM | ID #16 Oral Research PaperEating a Western-style diet can rapidly impair memory function                                                   |                                                                                                                                             | ID #47 Oral Research Paper:What is Behcet's disease and how does it affect cognition?                                               |
| 12:10 PM - 12:30 PM | ID #20 Oral Research Paper:The Influence of Subjective Cognitive Decline on Prospective Memory over Five Years                             |                                                                                                                                             | ID #11 Oral Research Paper:Evaluating a 3-stage cognitive screening process in a drug and alcohol service.                          |
| 12:30 PM - 1:30 PM  | Day 2: Lunch                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                         |
|                     | Day 2 Theme: Clinical practice                                                                                                                 | Day 2 Theme: Paediatric continued                                                                                                           | Day 2 Theme: Acute                                                                                                                      |
| 1:30 PM - 1:50 PM   | ID #35 Oral Research PaperIs psychoanalytic neuropsychology a scientific endeavour?                                                        | ID #40 Oral Research PaperExploring Australian teachers' understanding and use of neuropsychological assessment report recommendations. | ID #25 Symposium:Updates on factors influencing post-acute outcome after mild traumatic brain injury.                               |
| 1:50 PM - 2:10 PM   | ID #15 Oral Research PaperA systematic review of cognitive screening tools for young people aged 12-25                                     | ID #7 Oral Research Paper:Identifying Children with Developmental Dyslexia At-Risk of Co-occurring ADHD Symptoms                        |                                                                                                                                         |
| 2:10 PM - 2:30 PM   | ID #51 Oral Research PaperTranslational Research Project: Enhancing cognitive screening and neuropsychology involvement in subacute stroke | ID #10 Oral Research Paper:Neuropsychological functioning of children and adults with unoperated metopic synostosis.                    |                                                                                                                                         |
| 2:30 PM - 3:00 PM   | Day 2: Afternoon tea                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                         |
| 3:00 PM - 4:00 PM   | Invited address: David MaddocksShiraz Room A & B                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                         |
| 4:00 PM - 5:00 PM   | Annual General Meeting (AGM)Shiraz Room A & B                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                         |
| 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM   | Friday dinner                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                         |

Saturday, November 9, 2019

|                     | Shiraz Room A                                                                                                                            | Shiraz Room B                              | Cabernet Room A & B                                                                                        |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM  | Invited address: Duncan McGauchie                                                                                                        |                                            |                                                                                                            |
|                     | Shiraz Room A & B                                                                                                                        |                                            |                                                                                                            |
| 10:00 AM - 10:30 AM | Day 3: Morning tea                                                                                                                       |                                            |                                                                                                            |
| 10:30 AM - 11:30 AM | Invited address: George Paxinos                                                                                                          |                                            |                                                                                                            |
|                     | Shiraz Room A & B                                                                                                                        |                                            |                                                                                                            |
| 11:30 AM - 12:00 PM | White Paper Information Session: Ros Knight                                                                                              |                                            |                                                                                                            |
|                     | Shiraz Room A & B                                                                                                                        |                                            |                                                                                                            |
| 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM  | Day 3: Lunch                                                                                                                             |                                            |                                                                                                            |
| 12:15 PM - 1:00 PM  | Lunchtime Session: Meet the expert                                                                                                       |                                            |                                                                                                            |
|                     | Cabernet Room A & B                                                                                                                      |                                            |                                                                                                            |
|                     | Day 3 Theme: Clinical practice issues                                                                                                    |                                            |                                                                                                            |
| 1:00 PM - 1:20 PM   | ID #26 Oral Research PaperClinical neuropsychology graduate outcomes: Evaluating the impact of neuropsychology training in Australia | ID #55 'How to' Session:David Maddocks | ID #59 'How to' Session:Developing Practice Standards for Clinical Neuropsychology                     |
| 1:20 PM - 1:40 PM   | ID #45 Oral Research Paper:The psychology graduate program – supporting psychology registrars' transition to health professional.    |                                            |                                                                                                            |
| 1:40 PM - 2:00 PM   | ID #36 Oral Research Paper:Early history of neuropsychological research and teaching at the University of Melbourne.                 |                                            |                                                                                                            |
|                     | Day 3 Theme: Clinical practice issues continued                                                                                          |                                            | Day 3 Theme: Acute                                                                                         |
| 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM   | ID #19 Professional Forum:Clinical Conundrums: Learnings from the Neuropsychiatry Unit                                               |                                            | ID #22 'How to' Session:Assessing Normal Pressure Hydrocephalus; making sense of the current evidence. |
| 3:00 PM - 3:30 PM   | Conference closing ceremonyShiraz Room A                                                                                             |                                            |                                                                                                            |