Conference Overview

The AusPATH Conference 2025

The AusPATH Conference 2025 will be held face to face from Thursday 27 November – Saturday 29 November 2025 at the Hotel Grand Chancellor, Hobart, Tasmania.

In 2023, the AusPATH Conference brought together 520 face-to-face professionals and community in Melbourne, Victoria. This year, we anticipate 400+ delegates.

The AusPATH Conference is convened by The Australian Professional Association for Trans Health (AusPATH). AusPATH is Australia's national peak body for professionals involved in the health, rights and well-being of all trans people – binary and non-binary. The conference encourages all disciplines involved in trans healthcare to come together and to share knowledge, experience, and expertise to improve the lives of trans people and their communities in Australia.

This is achieved through the AusPATH organisational objectives:

- Provide education on the health, rights and well-being of all trans people – binary and non-binary to health professionals
- Develop best practices and supportive policies
- Share information and promote communication and collaboration amongst health professionals
- Encourage, promote and disseminate relevant research
- Maintain a network of over 475 supportive and informed professional service providers

The Conference

Attendance & Delegates

Based on feedback from stakeholders, delegates and collaborators the sector is extremely keen to meet face to face again, after the success of the 2023, AusPATH conference.

In 2023, the majority of the post-conference survey respondents stated the conference program had exceeded their expectations. We expect to welcome a minimum of 400 in-person delegates working in the healthcare sector including: primary healthcare workers, community, specialist clinicians, general practitioners, policy experts, academics and mental health practitioners.
