

Abstract:

In this presentation I will be exploring the experiences of trans and gender diverse people when accessing medical care for sexual and reproductive health. I will also discuss how clinicians can improve access for the community and improve health outcomes for trans and gender diverse people.