

RECENT TRENDS IN SYPHILIS IN REGIONAL AND REMOTE AUSTRALIA

Nathan Ryder

Synopsis: In 2011 the elimination of syphilis in Aboriginal communities seemed tantalising possible; 7 years later we are struggling to control a major outbreak in across 4 states/territories. What have we learnt and what might the future hold?