

The value of Peer Support Mentors in the Family Drug Treatment Court program

Natalie Wloch

Matt Wilson

The Family Drug Treatment Court helps parents to overcome their alcohol and drug issues and create a safe and stable environment for reunification with their children.

Lana's story: An inspirational mum

Loved one's death

family violence

substance misuse

rock bottom

My Peer Support Mentor and me

Mutual support

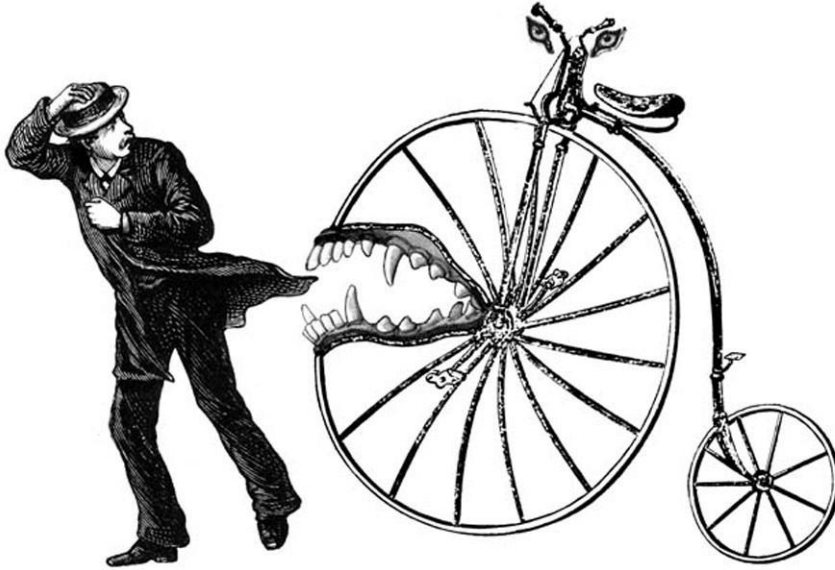

Connection

Empowerment

Hope & empathy

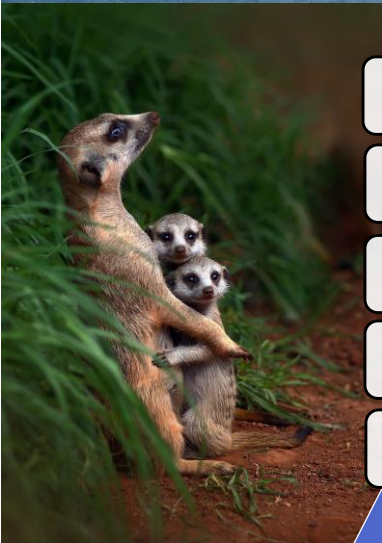

Sharing lived experience

A VICIOUS CYCLE

Why is this Court so important?

Saves and improves lives

Transforms parents

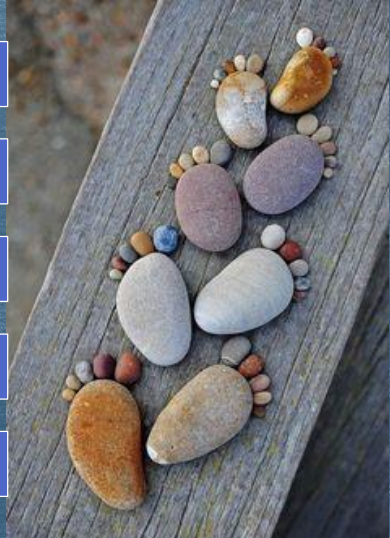

Keeps families together

Intensive holistic support

Help more families in need

Why are Peer Workers so valuable?

- Put us back on track
- Lots of insight & ideas
- Understand us
- Help us open up
- Walked in our shoes

Mutually beneficial partnership

"...allows us to provide a program that is more attuned with the needs of our participants."

Put your hand up

...if you would like
Peer Workers in your organisation

SHARC can help you transform lives

Just go to sharc.org.au and click on

Peer Support

Disclosure of Interest Statement:

This program is a partnership between SHARC and Court Services Victoria (CSV). SHARC holds the governance responsibility and is subcontracted by FDTC.