

Presentation title: Vaginal microbiome and HIV-1 susceptibility

Professional Title: Professor Gilda Tachedjian

Head Life Sciences Discipline and Retroviral Biology and Antivirals Laboratory and Co-Head of the Eliminate HIV Program at the Burnet Institute

NHMRC Senior Research Fellow

Biography: Professor Gilda Tachedjian is a virologist with an interest in identifying and advancing the development of novel agents for HIV treatment and prevention. Her laboratory is focused on developing a new drug class for HIV and understanding the impact of the genital microbiome on susceptibility to HIV and other STIs.