

ENGAGING PARLIAMENTARIANS IN SECURING FINANCIAL AND POLICY INVESTMENT TO PROGRESS TOWARDS SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE RELATED SDGS IN THE ASIA-PACIFIC REGION.

Charles Chauvel¹

¹ Team Leader, Inclusive Political Processes, Democratic Governance and Peacebuilding Cluster, Bureau for Policy and Programme Support

This presentation will provide an overview of the United National Development Programme's efforts to support parliamentarians to strengthen their capacities to deliver more inclusive, accountable and open budgeting, lawmaking, oversight, and representation for the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in relation to sexual and reproductive health and rights. Examples will include the role that MPs and legislatures can play in the implementation of the Commission's Report on HIV and the Law.