

Voice of Youth – A Young person's perspective on Reproductive Health

Maddison Sweetapple

Young people have varying experiences of the provision of information and services around reproductive health. This talk will outline the perspective of a young woman and her peers in terms of the challenges faced, and needs that require addressing, in this vital area of healthcare.