

Positive Life NSW's In-Clinic Peer Navigation Program in Greater Western Sydney

We acknowledge the traditional owners of the lands on which we meet today, the Kaurna people, and pay our respects to Elders, past and present.

We also extend that respect to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people here today.

We acknowledge the ongoing connection that Aboriginal people have to land, water, culture and heritage, and recognise Aboriginal people as the original custodians of the land.

We recognise and acknowledge that sovereignty was never ceded, and always was, and always will be Aboriginal Land.

Women, mothers, children, people of diverse genders, people of diverse sexualities, sex workers, people of colour, people who use drugs, people who are marginalised, fathers, and men, put their life experiences, reputations, bodies, hearts, and minds, on the line to advance the modern understanding of HIV and AIDS, treatments, stigma and comorbidities.

As a result of their many sacrifices, many of us including myself are able to live openly and authentically as people living with HIV, and we are well supported by our colleagues and friends.

Some of these trailblazers are here today. Sadly, many are not. We thrive today because of their formative sacrifices. They gave their minds, bodies, souls and spirits to help guarantee a brighter tomorrow. We honour them today and everyday.
