

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Healthcare Worker Scholarship Application Guidelines

Eligibility and Conditions

To be eligible you:

- Are able attend the conference in person from 18 to 20 August 2027 in Dharawal (Wollongong), New South Wales
- Are living in Australia
- Are an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Worker/Practitioner

Priority will be given to those who:

- Do not have access to other sources of funding to attend the conference.
- Have not been to the conference before.

Terms and Conditions:

- All applicants must provide accurate information and advise ASHM if their situation changes. Withholding or giving false information may result in the withdrawal of the application.
- All scholarship holders will be expected to share a personal reflection of the conference with ASHM within 1 month from the conclusion of the conference.
- Applications will be reviewed by a panel that includes community representatives.
- No extensions for applications will be provided
- Panel decisions are final

How to apply

To apply for an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Worker Scholarship, please answer the questions below in a word document or an email and send them to conference@ashm.org.au

- 1. Explain your role in your organisation and why attending this conference is important to you (Maximum 500 Words)
- 2. How will this scholarship help you to attend the conference? (Maximum 500 words)
- 3. Provide a brief outline, including examples, of how you will transfer the knowledge you learn at the conference to people in your community and through your work (Maximum 500 words)
- 4. Scholarship Logistics
 - a. Full name
 - b. Email address
 - c. Contact number
 - d. Job title
 - e. Organisation
 - f. Address – city, state and country only
 - g. What support do you require to attend the conference (registration, accommodation, travel)
 - h. If you require travel support, what airport will your flights depart from when travelling to the conference?