

WA Branch presents

THE RURAL EDUCATION WEEKEND

Emerging Technologies

The Sebel, Mandurah
24 - 25 October 2020

Abstract Marking Matrix (Scientific Paper)

Criteria	Not Acceptable	Below Average	Average	Excellent	Outstanding
Relevance of topic to the medical radiation profession Max. 3 marks	Abstract topic is not relevant to the medical radiation profession and is not relevant to the attending audience. Title does not reflect abstract content. (0)	Difficult to determine relevance of abstract topic to the medical radiation profession and relevance to the attending audience. Title partly reflects abstract content. (1)	Abstract topic is broadly relevant to the medical radiation profession and will be of interest to a small number of audience members. Title reflects abstract content. (1.5)	Abstract topic is considerably relevant to the medical radiation profession and will be of interest to audience members. Title reflects abstract content. (2)	Abstract topic is highly relevant to the medical radiation profession and will be of great interest to a wide audience. Title reflects abstract content. (3)
Background (objectives), Aims and Research Methodology Max. 4 marks	No discussion of research aims or methodology. (0)	Basic discussion of research aims. Research methodology used is unclear and unable to determine if appropriate for the research aims. (1)	Good description of the research aims. Good description of the research methodology used, but not appropriate for the study aims. (2)	Excellent description of the research aims. Excellent description of the research methodology used. Research methodology is appropriate for the study aims (3)	Research aims are clearly defined. Outstanding and indepth description of the research methodology used, which matches the aims of the study. (4)
Results and Conclusion Max. 6 marks	Research results are unclear, conclusion does not support results. (0)	Results not discussed, with no acknowledgment if these are pending. Conclusion does not reflect aim and reported results. (3)	Results are discussed at a basic level. Conclusion is acceptable based on aims and reported results. (3)	Results are discussed. Excellent conclusion which reflects aims and reported results. (4.5)	Clear and concise results. Outstanding conclusion reflecting aims and reported results. (6)

WA Branch presents

THE RURAL EDUCATION WEEKEND

Emerging Technologies

The Sebel, Mandurah
24 - 25 October 2020

Abstract Marking Matrix (Scientific Paper)

		(1.5)
Clarity of Abstract Max. 4 marks	The research process has not been described and it is unclear what the research project involved. The reviewer is unable to read and follow the abstract submission. Abstract contains personal feelings on research subject. Numerous spelling and grammatical errors exist. (0)	Basic description of the research process and what the research involved. Abstract contains some bias. It is difficult to follow what the author is saying. Some spelling and grammatical errors exist. (1)	Good description of the research process and what the research involved. Abstract is clear and free from bias. Some spelling and grammatical errors exist (2)	Excellent description of the research process and what the research involved. Abstract is clear and free of bias with no spelling or grammatical errors. (3)	Outstanding description of the research process and what the research involved. Abstract is free of bias and is based on facts. Abstract is clear and easy to follow with no spelling or grammatical errors. (4)
Novelty of Abstract Max. 4 marks	The abstract details information which is not new and has already been thoroughly presented. (0)	It is difficult to determine if the topic presented provides new or original information. (1)	The topic presented is current. It provides new, original information which will be of interest to a small number of audience members. (1.5)	The topic presented is current. It provides new, original information which will be of interest to audience members. (2)	The topic presented is current. It provides new, original information which will be of great interest to the audience. (3)