

How Talk Now Telehealth works

- 01 Build your professional profile
Set your fees, availability, and service offerings. Your profile reflects your practice and attracts clients who are the right fit for your expertise.
- 02 Connect with right-fit clients
Clients browse profiles and choose clinicians based on their needs and preferences. Existing clients can also find you quickly and easily by typing your name into the search bar.
- 03 Deliver sessions from anywhere
Run secure sessions across video, voice, or chat, with automated reminders and AI-supported record-keeping built in.
- 04 Payments & accounting made easy
Medicare claiming, HICAPS integration, Xero, and flexible upfront payment options mean cash flow and accounting is no longer something you need to worry about.

Everything in your subscription

Be part of something that's building momentum

Talk Now Telehealth marks the beginning of a new, improved way to run a private practice. We've built a multi-disciplinary platform designed not just to host clinicians, but to actively grow alongside them, investing in the marketing, technology, and a client experience that keeps people coming back.

The clinicians who join now aren't just using the platform, they're helping define what it becomes.

Foundation membership

Pay nothing until your first booking

Get started with no upfront costs. You only begin paying once you are actively seeing clients on the platform.

White-glove onboarding support

Access personalised setup support to ensure your profile, availability, and preferences are set up smoothly from day one.

Discounted subscription for 3 months

Access a reduced rate for the first three months, then continue or cancel with no lock-in contracts.

Complete hybrid transition kit

Templates, consent forms, and step-by-step guides to bring your existing clients across with no hassle.

Refer a colleague, get a month free

Invite another practitioner to join the platform and receive one month of subscription free.

Foundation Clinician badge

Stand out on the platform with a Foundation Clinician badge on your profile, showing you were part of the original launch cohort.

Why clinicians Choose Talk Now Telehealth

You have spent years building your clinical skills. The hard part was never whether you could run a private practice. It was having the right system in place to make it work. Talk Now Telehealth is that system. Scheduling, billing, notes, client management and more, all in one place, so the business side of your practice runs without taking up the time you'd rather spend with clients.

The only person running your practice is you

Talk Now Telehealth doesn't employ you, take a commission, or dictate how you work. You operate your own independent practice; the platform simply gives you the tools to do it well.

A platform that works as hard as you do

We grow together or not at all. Talk Now actively invests in client acquisition, targeted marketing, and a seamless app experience, because a full caseload for you is the only measure of success that matters to us.

Private practice Built the way you imagined it
