

It matters more at Hearing Australia

"What I love about working at Hearing Australia is the opportunities that we get." – Celia, Audiologist

We're here to support anyone who needs us and we keep our clients at the heart of everything we do. We'll help you to develop knowledge, skills and experience and build a career and future you'll be proud of.

Your opportunity:

- Help children and adults including those with complex hearing and communication needs
- Get involved in world leading research conducted by the National Acoustic Laboratories, our research division
- Help improve the hearing health of First Nations children and communities
- Provide telehealth services

What we offer:

- 15.4% superannuation
- Work a 9 day fortnight (for full time employees)
- Annual pay rises and retention payments
- Clinical professional development support
- Parental leave and secondary caregiver leave
- Support from our head office team

For more information please email recruitment@hearing.com.au or visit hearing.com.au/careers