ABOUT CAUDIT

The Council of Australasian University Directors of Information Technology (CAUDIT) is an incorporated NFP entity with membership drawn from the higher education and research institutions in Australia and New Zealand, plus some in the nearby Asia Pacific region, as well as several major Australian research organisations. Members are represented by the most senior IT person in their organisation - generally their Chief Information Officer, Chief Digital Officer or Director, IT.

CAUDIT's purpose is to support Members in leading the application of digital capabilities to transform education and research. CAUDIT provides networking opportunities, negotiates collective procurement agreements, provides professional development, undertakes benchmarking, and fosters collaboration through the sharing of thought leadership, experiences, and best practice among its members.

MEMBERS' MEETING

In Autumn and Spring of each year, CAUDIT holds a Members' Meeting which brings together CAUDIT's Member Representatives, the most senior people in IT across the Higher Education and Research Sector. These meetings are an opportunity for connection, networking, collaboration, and discussion.

Following the success of the Spring Members' Meeting in Brisbane in October 2022, the Autumn Members' Meeting will also be held in Brisbane, immediately following the THETA conference. The program will feature a series of presentations and panel discussions exploring innovations, insights and opportunities delivered by Member Institution staff and researchers, sector associations and leaders.

Attendees at the Autumn Members' Meeting include CAUDIT Member Representatives and their colleagues. Invitations will be sent to the CIOs of the 66 CAUDIT Member Institutions across Australia, New Zealand, the South Pacific and Papua New Guinea, who are welcome to extend the invitation to their direct reports and wider colleagues.

CAUDIT works with the chosen sponsors to facilitate maximum exposure and substantial contact at the event. Please note that these are exclusive intimate meetings curated around relevant themes for our Member Institutions and not an exhibition style event.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The 2023 Spring Members' meeting will begin in the afternoon on Wednesday 19 April 2023, immediately following the close of the 2023 THETA conference, and will continue until mid-afternoon on Thursday 20 April 2023.

The number of day sponsorship packages is strictly limited, and allocation is determined via an application process. Please note that sponsorship packages cannot be customised.
