TERRY MCMULLAN

Chairman and Publisher – Insurance News

Terry McMullan is the Chairman and Publisher of Insurance News. He trained as a journalist, working in New Zealand and Africa, spent the 80s working for BHP in a number of corporate and lobbying roles, and then picked up an interesting communications role at the Insurance Council.

In 1997 he co-founded a marketing company which consulted to NIBA and a range of insurance-related organisations.

He also managed the NIBA magazine Insurance & Risk Professional until 2009. insurancenews.com.au was launched in 2008 and its sister magazine the following year.
