Austin Szramka Oar Finance

Austin Szramka is a senior finance professional with more than 25 years of experience across corporate, residential, investment, and property development lending. He has held senior leadership positions at a major Australian bank and has worked extensively throughout Australia, leading large teams across multiple geographic regions. This breadth of experience has equipped Austin with a nuanced understanding of both national market dynamics and the diverse financial needs of clients in different communities.

Renowned for his expertise in complex credit structuring and strategic lending, particularly in the field of business and property development finance, Austin is committed to making finance more accessible and manageable for his clients. His deep technical knowledge allows him to distill intricate financial concepts into clear, practical strategies—empowering clients to make informed decisions with confidence.

Whether assisting with property purchases, structuring business and equipment finance, or navigating the challenges of large-scale property developments, Austin excels at streamlining processes and reducing stress. He is known for his proactive and empathetic approach, prioritising transparent communication and custom solutions that align with each client's unique goals.

In his current role as a finance broker, Austin brings this wealth of experience to every engagement, offering a steady hand and strategic guidance to individuals and businesses alike. His ethos is grounded in professionalism, integrity, and a genuine desire to make clients' lives easier through smart, tailored financial solutions.

Outside of his professional life, Austin enjoys bushwalking in Tasmania's natural landscape and spending time at his children's many sporting commitments..
