

Colonial First State Privacy Notice and Event Terms and Conditions

Privacy Notice

Colonial First State (CFS) collects your personal information including your email address and telephone number. The purposes of collecting this information are to process and administer your registration and attendance at the event, to manage our relationship with you, and unless you tell us not to, to contact you to discuss products or services that may be of interest to you. If we do not collect these details from you, we may not be able to register you for the event.

When you give us personal information about another person you represent that you are authorised to do so and agree to inform the person that CFS has collected their information as part of this event registration and of the contents of these Event Attendee Terms.

CFS may share details such as your name, contact details and any dietary requirements with third parties engaged to assist with producing the event. These third party services may include the venue, hotel or catering company, travel agency, event Production Company, ticketing agent or web streaming service.

For selected events, CFS may use EventsAir to manage event attendance and to provide attendees with networking opportunities. EventsAir may display your name, company and image to other event attendees, and provide other attendees with the ability to send you messages via an event app; no contact information will be provided to other event attendees.

If you wish to access or correct your event registration details please direct your request to events@cfs.com.au. If you would like more information about how CFS handles your personal information or if you would like to make a privacy complaint, please refer to the CFS Privacy Policy (available on our website).

Terms and Conditions

By agreeing to these Event Attendee Terms, you confirm that (unless you tell us not to) CFS can use your contact details to communicate with you, including giving you updates, reminders and marketing information.

CFS may have photographers and videographers at the event. You consent to being filmed, recorded (by sound, video, image or otherwise) and photographed as an attendee of the event, and consent to its use by CFS anywhere in the world for promotional purposes, via any media platform.

CFS does not take responsibility for any goods, services and other benefits you may receive in relation to the event. You acknowledge it is your responsibility to comply with your organisation's gifts & entertainment policies (if applicable), and will seek further advice from your organisation regarding your attendance if necessary.

You are attending the event at your own risk. CFS is not responsible for any harm or loss unless caused by the wilful act or negligence of CFS's staff, agents or sub-contractors.

CFS reserves the right to refuse entry to any person for any reason.

Your invitation to the event is personal and not transferable.

If you require more information, please contact events@cfs.com.au
