

Partnership Prospectus 2025 Opportunities

Invitation from our Chief Executive Officer

Dear Colleague,

I am excited to share our latest Partnership Prospectus, which features a range of innovative sponsorship and branding opportunities designed to help you reach your marketing and engagement goals.

Throughout the year, Continence Health Australia hosts events that give you direct access to a passionate and highly engaged audience of healthcare professionals from across disciplines. These opportunities are your chance to connect with leaders and decision-makers shaping the future of continence health.

Kicking off our calendar in 2026 is the highly anticipated 34th National Conference on Incontinence (NCOI), from 13–16 May 2026 at the Pullman Melbourne Albert Park. As our flagship event, NCOI brings together professionals from across Australia and beyond for 4 days of cutting-edge education, valuable networking and collaboration. Whether you're interested in sponsorship, showcasing your brand in the busy Exhibition Hall, or aligning with top experts and content, this conference offers visibility and engagement on a national scale.

For more targeted interaction, we also run state-based Professional Development Days throughout the year. These one-day events offer intimate, targeted settings where professionals gather to learn, exchange ideas, and strengthen cross-disciplinary networks—ideal for sponsors seeking focused outreach.

I invite you to explore the prospectus and consider how partnering with Continence Health Australia can elevate your brand on both national and international stages.

If you would like to discuss customised partnership options or have any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch. We look forward to the exciting possibility of collaborating with you.

Warm regards,

Mr Jim Cooper
Chief Executive Officer
