CEO
C&K

Dr Sandra Cheeseman is Chief Executive Officer at the Creche and Kindergarten Association, Queensland (C&K). Sandra is first and foremost an early childhood teacher but over her 40 plus years in the early childhood sector she has held senior leadership roles, been a researcher and author and more recently she has returned to where the action is to lead one of Australia's largest not-for-profit early childhood organisations.

Sandra has served on several executive boards including the Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA), The Infants Home, Ashfield, Community Child Care Cooperative NSW and Lady Gowrie Sydney. She is a member of the Scientific Advisory Board for the Raising Children Network and the Australian Government's Ministerial Expert Advisory Group for a Preschool Outcomes Measure.
