Transforming Trauma: 35 Years of EMDR Practice, Science & Impact

Invitation

EMDR Association of Australia (EMDRAA) is a not-for-profit member-based association dedicated to support and promote best practice EMDR therapy. We do this by setting and monitoring standards of therapy for clients and training for therapists, thus ensuring the widest promotion of scientifically proven trauma healing.

With a membership of over 2300 EMDRAA comprises of professionals such as general practitioners, psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, counsellors, and others from various regions across Australia. Many of these members are business owners or, employers and have vast networks within the mental health field and beyond.

On behalf of EMDRAA, we would like to invite you to support our upcoming conference in May 2026. The EMDRAA 2026 Conference themed 'Transforming Trauma: 35 Years of EMDR Practice, Science & Impact' will be held on 1 - 2 May 2026 at the Sofitel Sydney Wentworth, Sydney and streamed virtually to view through our online conference app.

Supporting this event presents a significant opportunity for your organisation to receive considerable recognition through diverse sponsorship avenues provided by our conference app 'EventsAir', elevating your brand visibility, and showcasing your dedication to the EMDR therapy community. Your participation in this conference stands as an exceptional and unmissable chance to highlight your products and expertise.

We eagerly anticipate collaborating with you and welcoming your presence in Sydney, in May 2026.
