ANZAHPE

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Kia ora, nau mai, haere mai ki ANZAPHE 2026 – Weaving Connection.

We are so delighted to welcome you to Ōtautahi Christchurch in Aotearoa New Zealand.

This year we had almost 600 abstracts accepted for presentation after a rigorous review process. We have 4 keynote sessions, including a panel plenary, and our program offers 340 oral presentations, 22 PeArLS and 205 posters. We also offered 20 workshops and 1 one Masterclass in collaboration with AMEE. With over 700 delegates this is sure to be a great event.

There are many people who have contributed to the preparation for this major event, huge thanks are in order to:

- The ANZAHPE Conference Committee: Jo Bishop and Priya Martin (co-chairs), Nalini Pather, Charlotte Denniston, Kiah Evans, Jill Romeo, Adrian Schoo, Tehmina Gladman, Amber Philpott
- The 2026 Local Organising Committee: Tehmina Gladman and Amber Philpott (co-chairs), Emma Collins, Komal Srinivasa, Philippa Friary, Tim Wilkinson, Laura Joyce, Tanisha Jowsey
- 2026 Conference Ambassadors: Rebecca Grainger, Hanna Olson, Philippa Nicoll Antipas, Louise Beckingsale
- Rachael Rogers and her team at Event Studio
- The ANZAHPE staff: Jill Romeo (Executive Officer) and Kendall Marriott (Administrative Officer)
- All the (many) reviewers of abstracts and the chairs of sessions

We are also extremely grateful for the support of our Conference Partner, Australian Medicines Handbook (AMH), the conference Gold Sponsors Australian Medical Council risr/, ExamSoft, Waipapa Taumata Rau University of Auckland, University of Otago Otakou Whakaihu Waka and all other Conference sponsors and exhibitors.

We know ongoing connections and collaborations across the health professional education (HPE) community thrive because of in person events like this conference. We hope ANZAHPE 2026 is once again an opportunity to celebrate all things HPE and we hope you thoroughly enjoy your time here.

I look forward to seeing you at the conference!

WELCOME FROM THE ANZAHPE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Kia ora, Nau mai, Haere mai ki ANZAHPE 2026 Welcome to Ōtautahi Christchurch, Aotearoa New Zealand

It is our great pleasure, as Conference Committee and Local Organising Committee Co-Leads, to warmly welcome you to ANZAHPE 2026, held from 29 June to 2 July in the vibrant city of Ōtautahi Christchurch. We gather on the whenua of Ngāi Tūāhuriri of Ngāi Tahu, and we honour the deep cultural, historical, and ongoing significance of this place.

Weaving Connection

Our theme for 2026, Weaving Connection, reflects the essential role of collaboration, reciprocity, and shared purpose in health professions education. This theme is beautifully captured in the Māori whakatauki:

“Nau te rourou, naku te rourou, ka ora ai te iwi.” With your food basket and my food basket, the people will thrive.

At a time when health systems face workforce pressures, climate-related health impacts, and persistent inequities; and when artificial intelligence, data-driven care, and global connectivity are reshaping our educational landscape; our collective efforts matter more than ever. ANZAHPE 2026 invites us to bring our diverse knowledge, experiences, and innovations together to weave a stronger, more connected future for our learners, our professions, and our communities.

A Rich and Engaging Program

Our conference journey begins on Monday 29 June with interactive pre-conference workshops, followed by our Welcome Event, a relaxed opportunity to reconnect with colleagues and forge new relationships.

From Tuesday 30 June to Thursday 2 July, you will experience a vibrant program featuring:

- Thought-provoking keynote speakers
- Inspiring research and practice presentations
- Innovative poster sessions
- Our signature PeArLS (Personally Arranged Learning Sessions)—the heart of ANZAHPE, offering intimate, generative spaces for shared learning and idea-building.

We are delighted to see the breadth and depth of contributions from across our community, reflecting the creativity, commitment, and scholarly excellence that define ANZAHPE.

Honouring Connection and Community

As always, one of the hallmarks of ANZAHPE is the opportunity to connect; whether catching up with long-standing colleagues or meeting new collaborators. We have ensured generous time and space for morning and afternoon teas, lunches, and engagement with our exhibitors and sponsors, whose support is invaluable to the success of this conference.

We also extend a warm welcome to those attending ANZAHPE for the first time. Please add a first-timer sticker to your name badge. We look forward to greeting you personally at our First Timers event before the welcome reception, and throughout the conference. Our wonderful team of student volunteers, easily spotted in their conference shirts, will be on hand to assist you at any time.

Wellbeing, Place, and Local Experiences

Ōtautahi Christchurch offers a unique blend of natural beauty, cultural richness, and urban renewal. We encourage you to take moments of fresh air and exploration, whether along the Ōtākaro Avon River, through the Botanic Gardens, or in the vibrant city centre. Local Champions have curated activities to help you experience the spirit of this remarkable region.

Celebration and Connection

No ANZAHPE conference would be complete without our cherished conference dinner, which is a joyful celebration of community, scholarship, and shared purpose. Come ready to enjoy good food, good company, and perhaps even a turn on the dance floor.

As we gather in Ōtautahi Christchurch, we do more than share research and practice; we weave together the threads of our collective future. Your presence, your ideas, and your generosity of spirit are what make ANZAHPE the thriving, connected community it is. We wish you an inspiring, energising, and deeply connected ANZAHPE 2026.

Ngā mihi nui,

Jo Bishop and Priya Martin

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Dr Martin Chadwick
*Manatū Hauora -
Ministry of Health New Zealand*

PLENARY SESSION 4
Thursday 2 July, 3:00pm

Martin is the Chief Allied Health Professions Officer within the Ministry of Health, working in partnership with the Chief Medical Officer, Chief Maternity Officer and Chief Nursing Officer in providing transdisciplinary clinical leadership and advice. The role works at a systems level as well as providing support to clinicians, programmes and projects across the Ministry. Martin was the 2019-20 New Zealand Harkness Fellow in Health Care Policy and Practice. He has completed his doctoral degree in 2019 examining health workforce change. He is passionate about the untapped potential that allied health professions can bring in improving the quality of care provided to our populations, and in turn better meeting equitable population health needs. More recently he worked with his team to publish the first iteration of the Hauora Haumi|Allied Health report which captures the potential and associated challenges for an initial grouping of 14 professions with the intention to build on this over time.

Prof Sonia Kumar
St Mary's University, London

PLENARY SESSION 2
Wednesday 1 July, 9:00am

Prof Kumar is the Founding Executive Dean of Medicine at St Mary's in London, leading their new School of Medicine, which will welcome its first cohort in September 2026. Prof Kumar has over two decades experience as a GP and educationalist, specialising in community-based health and education for the benefit of society, which will be core to the new School.

Sonia studied Medicine at King's College London, where she also gained a Bachelor of Science and Master's degree (distinction) and also holds a Fellowship with the Royal College of General Practitioners. Prior to this role she was the Associate Dean in Community Engagement at the University of Leeds, where she led the university's civic mission in the city and local region. She established CENTRE (community engagement network in research education and civic engagement) working with colleagues across the university and key stakeholders to maximise the university's social impact, enabling students to gain key graduate attributes and citizenship skills needed for our future workforce and broader global change.

Dr Stella Ng

University of Toronto's Centre for Advancing Collaborative Healthcare & Education (CACHE) - University Health Network

PLENARY SESSION 3

Thursday 2 July, 9:00am

Dr Stella Ng is the Director and Scientist of the University of Toronto's Centre for Advancing Collaborative Healthcare & Education (CACHE) at University Health Network. Originally a paediatric audiologist, Stella's research trajectory was shaped by complex practice experiences in school-based healthcare. For nearly two decades, her research has advanced education as a powerful mechanism for transforming health and social care. Her early research identified how critically reflective practitioners enact truly collaborative, compassionate, and equitable care, and her recent research has demonstrated the outcomes of specific teaching approaches designed to foster critically reflective practice. This innovative research program connects education to changed practices and improved care experiences. As a Wilson Centre scientist, Stella collaboratively leads the Praxis Lab, an interdisciplinary community of scholars funded by competitive grants and fueled by common purpose. An award-winning educator, she holds faculty appointments in Speech-Language Pathology and Health Policy, Management & Evaluation, and has co-founded several widely influential professional development programs, including Teaching for Transformation and Collaborative Advocacy & Partnered Education (CAPE).

SYMPOSIUM PANEL SPEAKERS

PLENARY SESSION 1, Tuesday 30 June, 9:00am

Prof Suzanne Pitama

Symposium Panel Lead

Suzanne is the Head of Faculty, University of Otago Faculty of Medicine I. Suz has been involved in Māori health research and health professional education for over 20 years. Her work has included the development of models of health, which support health professionals signpost cultural competency and safety within their practice. Suzanne has received the Prime Minister's Supreme Award for tertiary teaching excellence and the Indigenous Leadership Award and Lifetime award from the Leaders in Indigenous Medical Education (LIME). Suzanne was awarded the Joan Metge Medal for her research in Indigenous medical education, and the Dame Marie Clay Award for contributions to educational and developmental psychology. Suzanne's leadership extends to significant governance roles, including as a former Director of the Australian Medical Council, where she chaired the Indigenous sub-committee. She is a current member of the Medical Deans of Australia and New Zealand.

Dr Tracy Haitana

Symposium Panel Member

Tracy is a registered clinical psychologist, who has worked in criminal justice settings, private practice, and in the area of sexual trauma. In addition to ongoing clinical work, Tracy works at the Department of MIHI in a senior lecturer role. She contributes to teaching within the undergraduate medical curriculum as well as postgraduate development and teaching for health professionals and clinical psychology students in the application of the Hui Process and Meihana Model. Tracy is a qualitative Kaupapa Māori researcher, having completed her PhD exploring the impact of systems on Māori patient and whānau experiences of bipolar disorder.

Dr Huhana Hickey (MNZM)

Symposium Panel Member

Dr Huhana Hickey MNZM (Ngāti Tahinga) is a Māori human rights and disability advocate, former lawyer, and HRRT member. She leads Māori disability equity through Pukenga Consultancy and TAMA Rōpū, grounded in Te Tiriti and lived experience. Huhana is also a Kaetakawaenga for the SES, and mentors young disabled to find their voices and their potential.

SYMPOSIUM PANEL SPEAKERS

PLENARY SESSION 1, Tuesday 30 June, 9:00am

Dr Maira Patu

Symposium Panel Member

Maira is a General Practitioner who is based at the Mount Pleasant Medical Centre. Maira was part of the Nga Kete Matauranga team who established the first VLCA General Practice in Invercargill and has spent time practicing in South Canterbury and South Auckland. Maira is involved in the design, development, implementation, and evaluation of the Hauora Māori curriculum at UOC. Maira is a member of the Hauora Māori Curriculum Sub-committee of the MBChB Curriculum Committee. Maira also contributes to the MIHI post-graduate short courses that support the professional development of health professionals in the Hui Process and Meihana Model. Maira has a focus on developing curriculum which utilises simulation and draws on local Māori patient experiences in the health system to support transformative practice.

Dr Kelly Tikao

Symposium Panel Member

Kelly Tikao (Waitaha, Kāti Māmoe, Kāi Tahu) is a creative researcher with Hakeke Productions, integrating storytelling, health, and broadcasting. A registered nurse with extensive experience across Māori and mainstream health and social services, she brings nuanced insight into vulnerability and resilience. Her research background includes qualitative disability research with the Donald Beasley Institute and evaluation work with Ihi Research.

Kelly lectures at the University of Otago, Christchurch, across postgraduate nursing and Māori Indigenous Health Innovations, teaching hauora Māori, the Meihana Model and contributing to multiple health science papers. She is also an adjunct fellow at the University of Canterbury and has worked as a senior researcher on Mindkiwi, a digital support programme for children with ADHD and mood disorders.

Her work is underpinned by a strong commitment to the arts and the revitalisation of Ngāi Tahu birthing knowledge and practice, including leading wānanga, developing ancestral inspired birthing resources, and creating the Hākui platform. She maintains active involvement within Ngāi Tahu communities and Māori women's leadership networks.

Australian Medicines Handbook Breakfast Session

The AI-era and why trusted medicines information is critical

Speakers: Simon La Forgia, Research & Development Lead / Editor

Location: Dobson 4, Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre

Date: Wednesday 1 July 2026

Time: 7:30am for a 7:50am commencement, Breakfast served at 7.30am

In medicines information, where considerations such as dose, interactions, and contraindications are critical, the priority is not speed but accuracy and reliability. The safest guidance is that which has undergone clinical review, robust quality control, and is supported with confidence. This is how the AMH delivers trusted knowledge.

Turnitin Breakfast Session

Disconnect to Protect: Leveraging ExamSoft to Safeguard High-Stakes Assessment, Advance Accreditation, and Assure Learning in Medical Education

Speaker: Lewis Hawkins, Account Executive, Turnitin

Location: Dobson 1, Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre

Date: Wednesday 1 July 2026

Time: 7:30am for a 7:50am commencement, Breakfast served at 7.30am

This interactive session, aligned with the ANZAHPE 2026 theme "Weaving Connection," explores the "Disconnect to Protect" strategy using ExamSoft to safeguard high-stakes medical assessments. Addressing challenges like generative AI and rigorous accreditation standards (e.g., AMC, AACSB), the presentation demonstrates how to secure assessment integrity while leveraging longitudinal data for "Assurance of Learning." Participants will learn to use performance analytics to identify competency gaps, map student progress to learning outcomes, and drive evidence-informed curriculum improvements. Ultimately, the session emphasizes collaboration—symbolized by the Māori whakataukī—to weave together technology and pedagogy, ensuring institutional accreditation readiness and enhanced learner success.

risr/ Breakfast Session

The 360-Degree Learner: Bridging the Gap Between Knowledge and Performance

Location: Dobson 2+3, Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre

Date: Wednesday 1 July 2026

Time: 7:30am for a 7:50am commencement, Breakfast served at 7.30am

A student might ace their MCQs but struggle in an OSCE or on the ward. If that data lives in different systems, we miss the opportunity for holistic support. How can we create a truly comprehensive view of learner competence? This session looks at the benefits of a single-platform approach to assessment. We'll discuss how linking written exams, clinical performance data (OSCEs), and workplace-based evidence into a single ecosystem allows for sophisticated "early warning systems" and more nuanced, evidence-based remediation.

Attendance Guidance for Minors – Conference Dinner (ANZAHPE 2026 Conference)

The organising committee is committed to ensuring an inclusive and supportive experience for all delegates attending the ANZAHPE 2026 Conference. As part of the conference social program, the conference dinner is intended as a networking and peer-based event and will include the service of alcoholic beverages. Given the nature of this event and in accordance with responsible service of alcohol requirements, the conference dinner is not considered an appropriate setting for minors. To ensure the wellbeing of younger attendees and to maintain compliance with venue and licensing obligations, minors are therefore respectfully advised not to attend the conference dinner.

The organising committee encourages accompanying delegates to make alternative arrangements for minors outside of the conference program.

SOCIAL PROGRAM

WELLBEING ACTIVITIES

Tuesday 30 June – A stroll and a meal

Meeting Point: Reception, Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre

Time: 5:30pm

Hungry? Want to discover one of Christchurch's hidden gastronomy dens? Then we're off to the RiverSide markets! Join our walking party for a ten minute trot into Cashel mall, where you can discover all manner of delectable street foods. Once you've found something delish join us upstairs for feasting and rich conversations. Come one come all!

Wednesday 1 July – Puti puti flax weaving

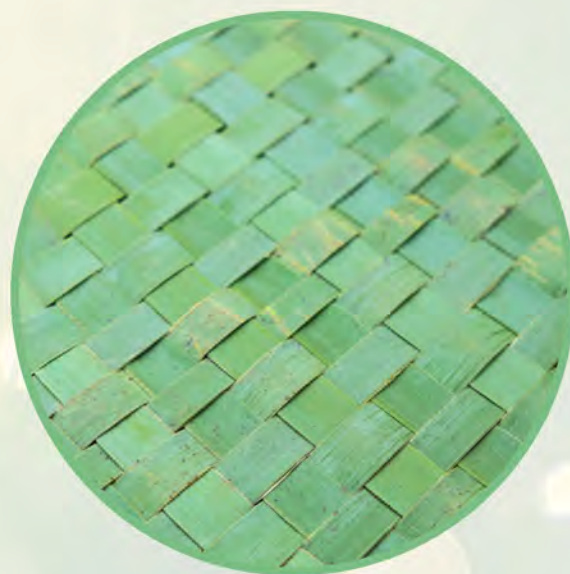

Meeting Point: Exhibition Foyer, Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre

Time: 12:15pm

Grab your lunch and join us for an informal lunch workshop weaving puti puti (flowers) from harakeke (flax). This is an opportunity to create something small with natural fibres while connecting with other conference delegates. In the South Pacific region weaving is a vital part of culture. Many cultures in this part of the world weave mats, baskets, and clothing. We weave and chat together as a means of meditative and even curious inquiry. Registrations are limited.

No prior experience is required.

Please register your interest via the Wellbeing Activities page on the conference website <https://eventstudio.eventsair.com/anzahpe-2026/wellbeing-activities>

ANZAHPE Community Wall of Wisdom Weaving display

Location: Exhibition Hall, Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre

This year, ANZAHPE invites delegates to contribute to our Community Wall of Wisdom—a collective reflection on the values, insights and lessons that shape our work in health professions education. Drawing on the knowledge of oracles and everyday wisdom holders alike, this evolving artwork celebrates diversity, connection and shared purpose. Write a proverb, insight, focus point or hard won lesson on recycled paper and weave it into the wall. As the conference unfolds, watch a living tapestry of wisdom emerge—one that will carry our collective voice forward to future ANZAHPE gatherings.

CULTURAL & COMMUNITY

Culturally Safe & Quiet Retreat Spaces

Please see below dedicated spaces available at the venue proudly sponsored by AMC

Aboriginal and /or Torres Strait Islander and Māori Cultural Space – Bealey 1

In acknowledging that all Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander and Māori delegates at this conference work between extremely different cultural spaces every day, ANZAHPE and the Australian Medical Council have provided a room as a culturally safe space for the exclusive use of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander and Māori delegates. This space has been designed with cultural safety in mind and will provide access to different cultural products.

The Quiet Room – Bealey 2

Need a break to recharge your battery?

This space is available for people who have sensory sensitivities or other hidden disabilities such as autism, anxiety, mental health conditions, dementia, visual impairment and deaf or hearing impaired. This space is also for those who simply need a moment of quiet before getting back to the conference. This space has been designed to provide those who enter with a calm and soothing environment. The space includes sensory activities and a quiet space which allows guests to re-regulate and recharge away from the stimulation of the conference activity.

First-time ANZAHPE Conference Attendees Hints and Tips

Attending an ANZAHPE conference can be an enlightening but also overwhelming experience! Here are some hints and tips from our members about how to get the most out of the conference:

First Timers event at the 2026 ANZAHPE Conference

As a first timer, we encourage you to come along to our first timers event. Come along to hear some wonderful hints and tips to help you navigate your first ANZAHPE conference and meet new people!

Details: 5-5.30pm, Monday 29th June, Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre

How to get the most out of the timetable

Trying to attend too many sessions can be overwhelming and may cause you to fatigue quickly during the conference! Instead, review the conference program ahead of time to determine which streams are most relevant to you.

1. Select 2-3 key streams that are of interest to you (a la carte) OR sample from a range of topics (buffet)
2. Consider whether there are speakers you've wanted to chat with and attend their sessions
3. Engage with a range of presentation formats – oral presentations, poster sessions, and PeArLs (which offer a structured opportunity to network with others around a specific topic!)

Network with your peers

ANZAHPE conferences offer a great opportunity to connect with educators from different professional backgrounds and workplace settings. Heed opportunities to meet new people, exchange ideas, and build connections – including outside of your workplace setting and profession! The ANZAHPE crowd are very friendly, so don't be shy! A highlight of ANZAHPE is making new connections with those outside of your regular network.
