Symposium 08
 From Concept to Reality: A Comprehensive Exploration into the Development and Evolution of a Virtual Emergency Department, Dr Jason Talevski, Northern Health
 The VVED Then and Now: A Descriptive Analysis of The Reach and Uptake of The Victorian Virtual Emergency Department, Associate Professor Adam Semciw, La Trobe University
 The Impact of Socioeconomic Status on Utilization of a Virtual Emergency Department: An Exploratory Analysis, Dr Jennie Hutton, Victorian Virtual Emergency Department
 Investigating access to a Virtual Emergency Department for a culturally diverse population: An Exploratory Analysis, Mr Mokhaled Mohammed, Northern Health
 Impact of the Victorian Virtual Emergency Department on Physical ED Utilisation and Patient Mortality, Dr Loren Slier, Northern Health

Session 6B: Primary Care Data
 Impact of an integrated general practitioner-paediatrician model on GP hospital referrals and GP paediatric care: a stepped wedge trial, Professor Raghu Lingam, Unsw
 Primary health care policy in Aotearoa – an overview of what has changed since 2010, what hasn't and why, Dr Tim Tenbense, University Of Auckland
 Primary care and clinical decision support technology: Future Health Today, Dr Barbara Hunter, University Of Melbourne
 Practical anonymization of free text primary care notes, Dr Roman Klapaukh, University of Melbourne
 Primary and community health cohort consortium: health service research and planning using the 4S and Up Study, Associate Professor Margo Barr, CPHCE, University of NSW
 Primary care data for research and improvement: challenges and opportunity, Dr Rachel Canaway, The University Of Melbourne
 Unlocking the Power of De-identified Primary Care EMR Data: Tips, Traps, and the Value of Context, Dr Christine Hallinan, The University Of Melbourne
 Opportunities for linked-data to inform health service utilisation equity: A demonstration using statewide linked primary and tertiary healthcare data, Tristan Bouckley, The George Institute for Global Health

Session 6C: Cutting Edge Methods and Meta Research
 Non-publication bias in clinical prediction modelling and the role of health services research, Nicole White, Aushi
 Evaluating the implementation of StandingTaller: Applying the NASSS Framework to determine scalability and sustainability for preventing falls, Dr Meghan Ambrens, Neuroscience Research Australia
 Development of a risk factor-based life expectancy calculator using metamodeling and machine learning: a proposed method and case study in diabetes, Associate Professor An Tran-Duy, University Of Melbourne
 Where does the Digital Age data come from?, Ms Sarah Colhoun, University Of Otago

Session 6D: Health Workforce
 Artificial intelligence in radiation therapy treatment planning: A Discrete Choice Experiment, Milena Lewandowska, Centre for Health Economics Research and Evaluation, University of Technology Sydney, NSW
 Investigating consumer preferences and experiences of allied health telehealth services in Australia, Dr Feby Savira, Deakin University
 Sustaining reductions in specialist clinic waitlists using data and a fresh mind-set, Prof Katherine Harding, Eastern Health
 Recovery from COVID-19 (ReCOV): Feasibility of an Allied Health led Post COVID-19 clinic for hospital staff – a mixed methods study, Dr Aruska D'Souza, The Royal Melbourne Hospital
 Recovering from COVID-19 (ReCOV): Feasibility of an Allied Health led multidisciplinary outpatient rehabilitation service for people with Long COVID, Mywanvy Merrett, The Royal Melbourne Hospital
 Audit and feedback for reducing overuse of pathology test requesting by Australian general practitioners: A factorial cluster randomised controlled trial, Professor Denise O'Connor, Monash University

Session 6E: Big Data and Data Linkage
 Visualising the patient journey: the Queensland Injury Atlas beta, A/Prof Susanna Cramb, Queensland University of Technology
 Queensland community opioid dispensing practices after spinal cord injury: a data linkage study, Miss Samantha Borg, Queensland University Of Technology
 Australian Cancer Atlas 2.0: uniquely informing provision of optimal placement of cancer-related services, Professor Peter Baade, Cancer Council Queensland
 Patient and acute care factors associated with days alive and at home (DAH) after hip fracture surgery, Dr Lara Harvey, Neuroscience Research Australia

Session 6F: LIGHTNING TALKS
 Shaping future practices: Understanding the perception of German-speaking medical and dental students of artificial intelligence – an online survey, Prof. Dr. Kyung-eun, Anna Choi, Center For Health Services Research, Brandenburg Medical School, Neuruppin, Germany
 Using behaviour change theory to enhance understanding, application, and education of causal inference methods in infectious disease research, Ms Yukiko Ezure, University Of Queensland
 A qualitative evaluation of healthcare workforce experiences during the implementation of a digital coordination centre in a large metropolitan hospital, Doctor Louise Shaw, University Of Melbourne
 Exploring AI-Powered Dietary Analysis Tools for Enhanced Nutrition Assessment, Dr Isabella Mauerl, Bond University
 Integrated long-term-care of patients with cancer: shared care between cancer services and general practice, Jane Taggart, Centre For Primary Health Care And Equity, Unsw Sydney
 Effect of the Children and Young People's Health Partnership model of paediatric integrated care on child health service use, health-care quality and child health outcomes: a cluster randomised controlled trial, Professor Raghu Lingam, Unsw
 Impact of coordinated care on adherence to antihypertensive medicines among adults experiencing polypharmacy in Australia, Dr Jialing Lin, University of New South Wales
 IntegraAnalytics: An innovative method for comparative analysis of integrated care programmes, Dr Maryam Pirouz, The University Of Auckland
 A multilevel perspective of the barriers, enablers, and strategies for implementing Learning Health Systems, Doctor Louise Shaw, University Of Melbourne
 "Nobody wants to log in to things" – a qualitative study examining general practice experience with technology in two integrated care projects, Mr John Mulley, The George Institute For Global Health
 Locally adapted guidelines – a scoping review, Prof. Dr. Kyung-eun, Anna Choi, Center For Health Services Research, Brandenburg Medical School, Neuruppin, Germany
 The long-term impact of attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder on children and adolescent's health-related quality of life: results from a longitudinal population-based Australian study, Dr Ha Nguyen Dao Le, Deakin University
 Digital mental health care in the Australian health ecosystem - reach, uptake and equity considerations from a national online service, THIS WAY UP, Dr Christine Shiner, St Vincent's Hospital Sydney
 The Association of Physiotherapy Continuity of Care with Duration of Time Loss Among Compensated Australian Workers with Low Back Pain, Dr Shannon Gray, Monash University
 @research - Development of a regional health services research teaching hub, Ms Tennille Lewin, Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre
