About:

- It's more than a decade since Shree International (HK) Ltd began dealing with natural colored fancy diamonds from the Argyle Diamond Mine. We began for the most obvious reasons: We were truly impressed by the Australian diamonds' incredible ability to reflect light and by their deep, intense play of colors. At the same time we were captivated by the likelihood that the mine will only produce fancy diamonds for a limited time.
- During this time we have acquired unique expertise and a deep insight in colored diamonds. This is a highly specialized area that necessitates close relationships, very particular connections - and numerous trips to Antwerp and New York, as well as many long journeys to Hong Kong, Singapore and Australia.
- Today pink diamonds attract more attention than ever. We are therefore extremely pleased - and in fact very proud - that we can present "Shree International's Argyle fancy Diamond Collection".

Overview of products :

- The main product categories fall in Natural Pink diamonds and Yellow diamonds.

The Pink fall into three main categories : The straight pink
The Orangey pink,
The Brownish Pink &
The Purplish pink, (As in Image)

- Each of these colors increases in Intensity, from "Faint" to the extremely rare "vivid". Only the absolute finest and most intensely colored diamonds deserve the description "Fancy Vivid".

Diamond for investment grade :

We offering very exceptional and rare natural fancy diamonds with combinational of its rarity and quality like its carat, clarity and color. These diamonds rank in to investments grades categories.

Over the last 5 years the global economy has known many ups and downs - but mainly downs. It is during these difficult times that people start to watch out for their money and look for real alternatives.

Naturally fancy colored diamonds are the most valuable gemstones on the planet as determined on a price per carat basis. Exceptionally fine colored diamonds have no fixed price - and as with fine paintings, set rules do not apply. Their true value will be determined when they are sold at auction.

Investing in rare colored diamonds is a long-term investment. The economic cycles of the past 15 years has seen colored diamonds reach new heights in value as price records were broken.
