Introduction

Begin your copy here using the section headings outlined above and heading level styles below. For the main body text, the style 'Body Text'. Single space between paragraphs and double space between end of section and new heading/section. Do not number the pages, but make sure the pages are in the correct order. The editor will number pages. Please use a 2.5 cm margin on all sides (left, top, bottom, and right).

References

References must be listed immediately following the conclusion and implications of the paper (no page break). Use APA style (see http://assets.cambridge.org/JHT/JHT_ifc.pdf). Alphabetise by author, and for each author, list in chronological order. List the authors' names exactly as written in the source cited. Use no abbreviations, use a hanging indent of 1.5 cm and single line spacing.

In-text: In text, list all authors in alpha order, with comma separating surname and year, and each subsequent reference separated with a semi-colon (Macdonald, 1997; Reisinger, 2003; Tribe, 2005). Ensure all direct quotes are captured with single 'quotation marks' and page numbers indicated as such: (Higgins-Desbiolles et al, 2012, p. 1). Longer quotes (more than 40 words) should be separated out by one line space and indented.
