4) Case Studies

A group of five diverse fantasy characters are sitting around a wooden table in a cave, playing a board game. From left to right: a bearded man with a green tunic, a man in a green tunic, a man in a brown leather tunic, a blue-skinned woman with pointed ears, and an orange, furry creature. The table is covered with a board game, including dice, a scroll, and various pieces. The background shows rocky cave walls with some green plants.

TTRPGs

Tabletop Role Playing Game

Collaborative storytelling game

Players role-play as fantasy characters (any genre)

Every character has strengths & weaknesses

Players collaborate to overcome obstacles

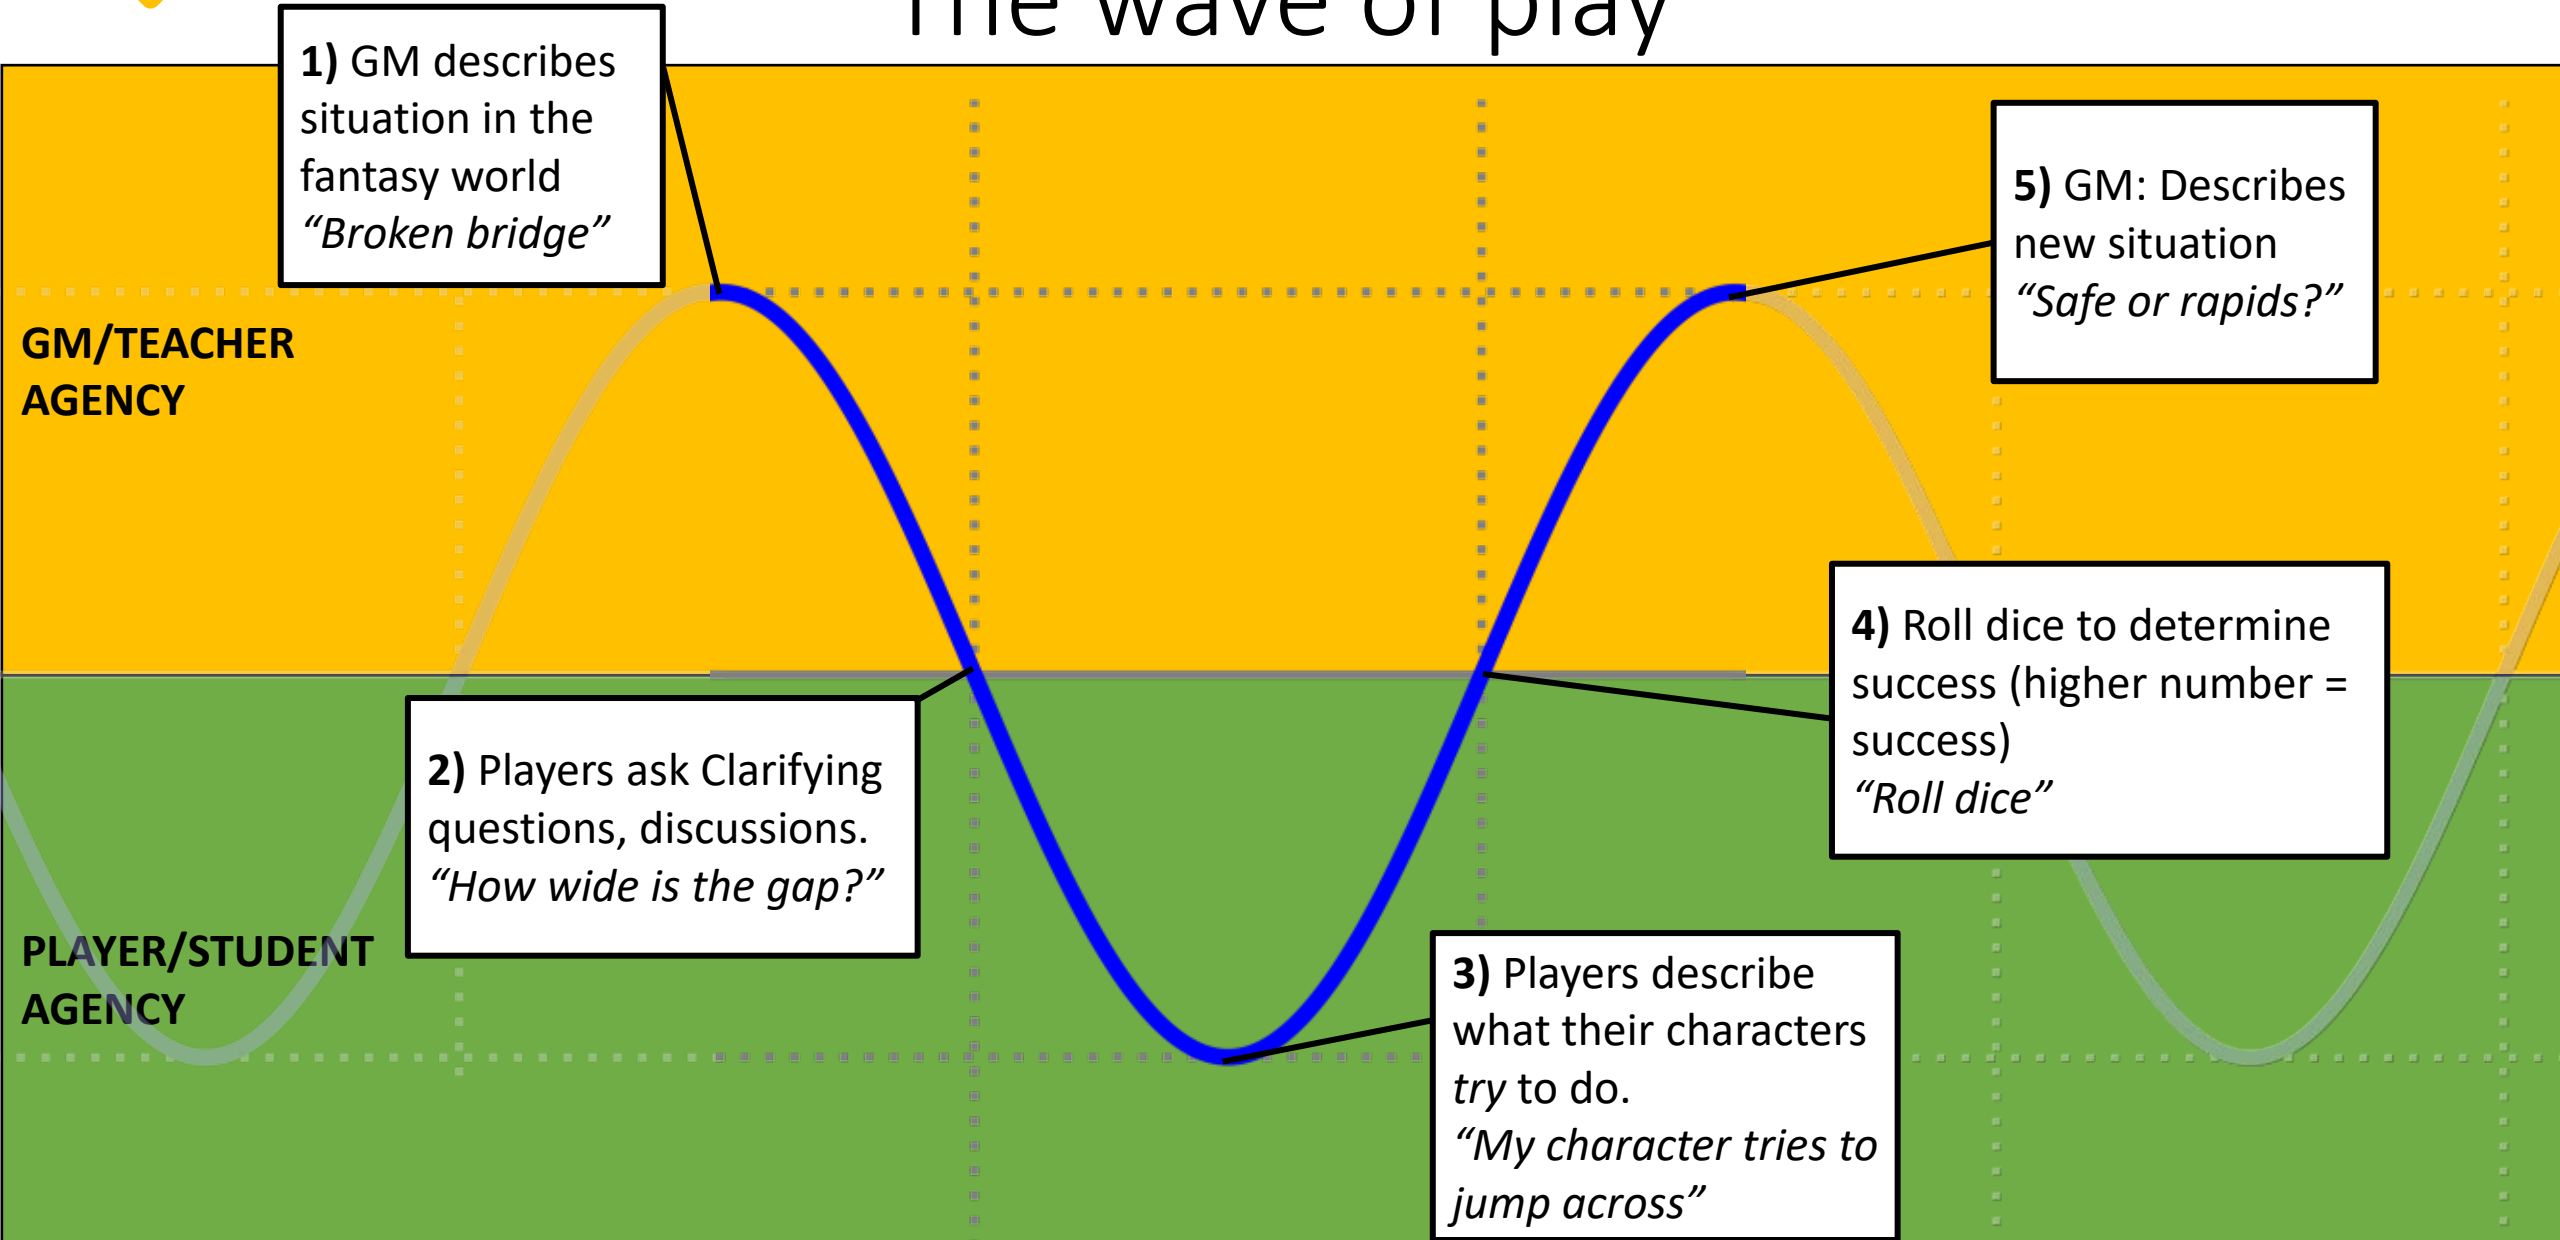

Games master (GM or DM), rules, & dice

How does it work?

The wave of play

1) GM describes situation in the fantasy world
"Broken bridge"

5) GM: Describes new situation
"Safe or rapids?"

4) Roll dice to determine success (higher number = success)
"Roll dice"

2) Players ask Clarifying questions, discussions.
"How wide is the gap?"

3) Players describe what their characters try to do.
"My character tries to jump across"

How it looks in a session

Session

CHECK IN Qs (5-10 min)

- ✓ Create check-in questions to Build capacity for positive-self expression
E.g., Who is someone you look up to? (BONUS: Who does your character look up to?)

GAME SESSION (50-100 min)

- ✓ Run through several encounters (waves of play)
- ✓ Support students' needs

CHECK OUT Qs (5-10 min)

1. Spotlight
2. Predictions/ hopes

1 square = 5 feet

CASE STUDY 1

PDHPE Learning Outcomes and Social Skills

Brendan Fraser
Stage 3 – Kotara School SSP
extremely shy and quiet
Embarrassed to laugh

- Consultation with the classroom teacher
- Intentional and graduated response
- part of a whole school response
- PD3-3, PD1-10

YOU FELL INTO MY TRAP!!!
YOU THOUGHT YOU WOULD CAPTURE
ME, BUT IT IS YOU HAVE BEEN CAUGHT
YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS HAVE BEEN TRAPPED IN DIFFERENT CELLS.
BELOW I HAVE WRITTEN A RIDDLE
IF EACH OF YOU SOLVE THE RIDDLE
YOU WILL BE FREE TO GO.
IF YOU DON'T

CASE STUDY 2

Traps, Puzzles and Investigations

BTS

Stage 3 - mainstream class

mixed abilities

Large spread difficulties with Word problems

- Traps, puzzles and investigations provide the perfect opportunity to practice set skills
- Whole class activity, not small groups
- Infinite variability

PLAYTEST

CASE STUDY 3

The Rise and Fall of Pindimar

Cross Curricular Outcomes and Learning Outcomes

Egyptian Mythology

Roman and European Empire

Asia and Australia's engagement with Asia

- Look ahead at upcoming curriculum
- Immersion builds schema
- Imply not state

FUTURE IDEAS

Art Theory

A one-shot detective adventure based on art crime.

Student's will be required to apply their knowledge learned in art to solve the case.

Languages

One or more of the people groups speak a language students are learning (Auslan).

Students and GM can communicate using Auslan.

STEM/Coding

Sci-fi or modern set game where students will need to create code, or build real world devices to solve problems their characters face.
