

The Australian Grains Industry Conference

Why should I send my employee/team member to AGIC?

Why attend AGIC?

- ✓ AGIC is the premier conference on the grains industry calendar
- ✓ AGIC is a well-established annual event, founded in 1999
- ✓ AGIC welcomes over 500 attendees from Australia and overseas
- ✓ AGIC offers exposure to the entire supply chain, including producers, exporters, importers, suppliers, technology, trade groups, government and key policy decision makers

The benefits for your business

- ✓ Quality employee professional development opportunities
- ✓ Employee attendance leads to staff satisfaction and retention
- ✓ Sets business up for strong succession planning and growth
- ✓ Increase awareness of business

Valuable content and connections

- ✓ Hear the latest challenges in the industry - and how to solve them
- ✓ Gain insights into the latest data and trends - saving time and money on external sourcing of data
- ✓ Learn from real success stories and best practises - saving time and money on what works (and doesn't)
- ✓ Connect with peers and industry leaders and establish relationships - ultimately benefiting future projects and re-share processes
- ✓ Share learnings with the team - great internal training opportunities
