About AGIC 2024

EVERY GRAIN
HAS A SILVER LINING

A must attend event

The Australian Grains Industry Conference (AGIC 2024) is an industry run conference for grain industry participants and service providers, hosted by leading grain associations Grain Trade Australia and Australian Oilseeds Federation.

Organisations involved in the production, logistics, processing and marketing of grains, as well as supporting services will benefit by sponsoring the Conference. AGIC 2024 offers an opportunity to enhance your brand, build your company's profile, attract new business prospects, and expand your networking opportunities.

AGIC offers exposure to:

- Grain and oilseed producers, processors, importers and exporters
- Manufacturers of food, animal feed, biofuels and bio-based industrial products
- Suppliers of services (financial/logistical/marketing/communications) to the grain and grain-products industry
- Ports businesses, freight forwarders, shipping/ocean line companies, container companies
- Technology, equipment and service providers
- Trade groups, government agencies and researchers
- Industry advisers/consultants; key policy/decision makers

Invitation to participate

HAS A SILVER LINING

We warmly invite you to be a part of AGIC 2024 in Melbourne, at the Crown Promenade, from 31st July - 1 August 2024.

As the premier event on the grains industry calendar, our industry-organised event provides unparalleled networking opportunities and a platform to promote your business and exchange ideas with clients, industry colleagues, decision makers and international participants.

The Australian grains industry is a growing focus for international customers, suppliers and investors. AGIC 2024 will provide the best opportunity for industry leaders to hear the latest news, outlooks and trends shaping the industry's future. The Conference is a platform to highlight leading-edge commerce in the grains industry, and explore opportunities and challenges for grains, supported by research and industry developments.

Our sponsors and exhibitors are a critical part of the Conference and we aim to ensure you receive maximum value for your sponsorship.

AGIC 2024 will feature a number of new ways to enhance networking and social opportunities, and we will work individually with sponsors and exhibitors to ensure we understand your needs and objectives. Our event, social media, marketing campaign, conference APP and website will provide a variety of ways to leverage your involvement and connect you to all delegates before, during and after the conference.

AGIC recognises the generous support from industry and particularly the continuing support of our many past sponsors, and we hope you will join us in 2024. Continued participation growth of sponsors is testimony to the value of the Australian Grains Industry Conference for delegates and sponsors/exhibitors. AGIC 2024 will again deliver a compelling technical program exploring the latest technologies, excellent networking opportunities, and an unrivalled place for all those involved in the Australian grains industry to do business.

To confirm your sponsorship, please complete and return the Sponsorship & Exhibition Booking Form at the end of the Prospectus.

We welcome your participation in the 2024 Conference.

The Australian Grains
Industry Conference

2024

Host Organisations:

Event Format

Conference

World-renowned industry experts will share their outlooks on the way forward for the industry. The Conference comprises keynote plenary presentations, specialist sessions addressing cutting-edge issues, and interactive sessions with industry leaders.

Marketing & Networking

EVERY GRAIN
HAS A SILVER LINING

As an AGIC sponsor and/or exhibitor you will receive an excellent opportunity to promote your organisation through a range of media and promotional activities. As well as promoting to conference delegates, we reach out to industry professionals, media and international organisations in a variety of ways, including:

Media relations campaign: A dedicated media relations campaign is implemented targeting print, radio and TV. Media are invited to the conference and kept abreast of key issues and newsworthy discussions via the distribution of numerous press releases. Sponsors and exhibitors will be recognised in all media releases and media kits relating to AGIC 2024.

Industry Newsletters: Coverage of the conference is also gained within industry newsletters, with all content pointing back to the AGIC website where sponsors and exhibitors are featured.

Social Media: AGIC will also be using social mediums such as Twitter, LinkedIn and the social wall within the 2024 conference APP to keep industry updated on all matters relating to AGIC. Where possible, sponsors and exhibitors will be mentioned within the AGIC social media campaign before and during the conference.

International marketing: AGIC will be proactively cross promoting both the Australian conference to the international market to build the profile and awareness.

Conference marketing material:

Print: Sponsors and exhibitors will be acknowledged in the printed Program and displayed signage.

Online: Sponsors and exhibitors will be mentioned on the AGIC 2024 Conference website, with links back to your website. The AGIC 2024 conference website is the go-to for the latest information on AGIC sponsors, registrations, speakers, program and social events.

Electronic: Sponsors and exhibitors will also be mentioned within electronic mail alerts and conference updates.

Conference APP

Sponsors and exhibitors will appear on the Conference APP, and have the option to be involved in the Grain game element of the APP, which encourages delegate engagement with your brand and company. The AGIC 2024 APP will also have the availability for you to capture delegate's details.

Value of Sponsorship

EVERY GRAIN
HAS A SILVER LINING

With a targeted audience from all sectors of the global grain, oilseed and pulse industries, your company will gain from AGIC's strong Australian and international exposure. The Conference presents a target market opportunity for exhibitors and sponsors to 'showcase' products and services of interest to the grains industry through a Conference sponsorship package that is a cost-effective way to reach delegates in your target market.

Profile

- two days of unparalleled exposure and access to a targeted client base for your products/services.

Target marketing

- an ideal marketing opportunity for companies with products and services for the grains industry.

Brand positioning/differentiation

- brand benefit from association with the highly respected AGIC 2024.

Customer involvement

- meet participants from across the grains industry value chain and network with new and existing customers.

Exposure

- reach the most relevant and influential grains industry audience through AGIC 2024 informal events and Conference sessions, away from the daily distractions of your business.

Increased sales

- a unique chance to generate sales and new business via exposure to a high calibre Australian and international audience.

AGIC also welcomes the opportunity to customise and tailor packages for prospective sponsors to suit your company requirements.

Please feel free to contact the Conference Convener below to discuss.

Email: events@ausgrainsconf.com

Phone: 0412 582 187

All sponsorship costs are exclusive of GST.

The following restrictions and terms apply:

- For sponsors entitled to inclusion of a promotional item in the Conference satchels, this excludes pens and writing pads as these are covered by a separate conference sponsorship.
- For sponsors entitled to inclusion of a promotional item in the Conference satchels, and who wish to provide an item other than a company brochure, these must be approved by the Committee as they may not be suitable for the satchels. The satchel inserts may be replaced by a chair drop in some instances.
- Speakers who are nominated as part of a sponsorship package must be approved by the Organising Committee, as does the content of their presentation. Presentations should only reference their organisation where the information provided is of genuine interest to Conference participants. Presentations should not be used as an advertorial for the commercial interests of the speakers, or, any other commercial organisation. The Organising Committee reserves the right to request a copy of the presentation at least one week ahead of the Conference.

The Organising Committee reserves the right to reject any promotional activity and/or material from a sponsor/exhibitor that the Committee deems inappropriate and/or adversely impacts on the value, or reputation, of the Conference.

Please note that the Full Conference Ticket is not refundable but can be transferred to another delegate. Full Ticket can be converted to Virtual Ticket up to 10 days prior to the event, and a refund of the difference of the ticket will be provided. If such conversion is requested within less than 10 days from the event, Virtual Ticket will be offered with no option of a refund. This is due to hotel catering numbers reporting requirements. GTA is collecting your personal information for the purposes of completing the registration above. GTA will use the personal information for the primary purpose or a directly related purpose. You understand that the personal information provided is for the purpose outlined above and shall otherwise remain private within GTA and will not be shared with any third parties, unless disclosure is required by law.
