

Street changes to fight COVID

The presentation will present the findings of research commissioned by Waka Kotahi into the street-based health response to COVID-19. It will examine what happened in Aotearoa and internationally, lessons learned and how we can be better prepared for future pandemics.