

Wednesday 1 August 2018

8:00AM Registration and information desk opens

WORKSHOPS

Location Seminar room

Chair Andy Smith

8:30AM Andy Lightowler, Beca Limited
The challenges of designing for 'interested but concerned cyclists'

9:20AM Bevan Woodward, Movement
Pedestrian crossing confusion - the facts, fiction and best practice

THE NEXT CHAPTER

Location Conference room

Chair Elizabeth Claridge

8:30AM Jack Jiang , AECOM New Zealand
SensiBel: Capturing user-experience to inform infrastructure

8:43AM David Huang, Jacobs Engineering Group
Are private bike share systems likely to succeed in NZ?

8:56AM John Lieswyn, ViaStrada
Managing the electric bike and scooter revolution

9:09AM Axel Wilke, ViaStrada
Dockless bike share - friend or foe?

9:22AM Patrick Morgan, Cycling Action Network
The e-bike grin - switching on to e-bikes

9:35AM Dr Jillian Frater, Lincoln University
"Enjoyment" of differing bicycle infrastructure in Christchurch: A pilot study

9:48AM Questions & Answers

10:00AM Morning break

Wednesday 1 August 2018

- 10:30AM Dr Caroline Shaw, Department of Public Health, University Of Otago Wellington
Health consequences of transport patterns in New Zealand's largest cities
- 11:00AM Hon. Phil Twyford, Minister of Transport
Presentation
- 11:30AM Associate Professor Sandra Mandic, University of Otago
Multidisciplinary collaboration and multi-sector partnership for active transport research
- 12:00PM Professor Simon Kingham
It's not the why or what, it's the how and who: developing policy to increase cycling

12:30PM Lunch

- 1:30PM Brent Barrett & Aleisha Rutherford, Palmerston North City Council
Realising our potential for Active Transport in Palmerston North
- 2:00PM Lucy Saunders, Healthy Streets
Closing address
- 2:30PM Brent Barrett, Palmerston North City Council
Prof Simon Kingham, Ministry of Transport
Claire Pascoe, NZ Transport Agency
Lucy Saunders, Healthy Streets
Dr Caroline Shaw, Department of Public Health, University Of Otago Wellington
Andy Smith, Living Streets Aotearoa
Panel discussion - Moving toward healthy communities
- 3:30PM Andy Smith, Convenor
Conference closing
- 3:45PM Conference closes