Resilience for the Future

Transportation Conference 2026

8 – 11 March 2026
Tākina Convention Centre
Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington

TRANSPORTATION CONFERENCE 2026

For over 40 years, the Transportation Conference has served as Aotearoa New Zealand's leading platform for transport planning, safety and engineering communities. This annual event provides an opportunity for industry professionals to come together, share insights, and address the pressing issues facing the transportation sector.

Jointly hosted by ENZ's Transportation Group and Trafinz, the 2026 conference will take place at Tākina in Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington. Our theme, "Working with What We Have: Resilience for the Future," underscores the urgent need for the sector to adapt and innovate in an increasingly complex environment.

New Zealand's transport network is currently facing significant challenges that impact social and economic prosperity. The conference will focus on preparing the transport sector to manage risks effectively within a resource-constrained landscape. Attendees will engage in meaningful discussions and explore strategies for leveraging existing resources to improve the delivery and management of transport infrastructure, in these challenging times.

We invite you to partner with the Transportation Conference 2026 and benefit from a range of opportunities to enhance your brand and profile, with a visible presence through out the event.

Together, we can foster resilience and shape the path forward to support our cities and regions prosper.

Erica Walker & Tobie Pretorius
Conference Co-Convenors

TG AND TRAFINZ WORKING TOGETHER

The Transportation Group and Trafinz have formed an alliance to co-host their annual conference. Combining the interests of both organisations will be of significant benefit to conference sponsors, exhibitors and delegates. All together, under the one umbrella, discussing in depth the challenges the transport sector faces.

Record delegate numbers are expected, along with interest from our long standing sponsors and exhibitors, not to mention new companies who will see the value of being part of this conference.

CONFERENCE THEME

WORKING WITH WHAT WE HAVE: RESILIENCE FOR THE FUTURE

Aotearoa New Zealand's transport network keeps our people connected and is crucial for economic growth, whether via road, rail, cycleway, or waterway. Keeping the transport network resilient against disruptions as well as fit for purpose for the future underpins a lot of the work in which the transport sector invests, from maintaining or upgrading our state highways and local roads to renewing the rail network to expanding our cycleways and footpaths and improving bus reliability and capacity.

Today, our transport network continues to experience significant challenges to New Zealand's social and economic prosperity. In the context of these challenges, the transport sector needs to be prepared to manage risks within an increasingly resource-constrained environment.

How do we leverage the limited resources at our disposal to ensure that our critical transport infrastructure is resilient to these challenges today, and in the future? How do we stabilise our transport system, ensuring that an infrastructure deficit is managed effectively? This theme involves looking deeply at what transport in New Zealand could be doing better today – inviting perspectives from all areas of the sector – to ensure a more resilient tomorrow.
