Pullman Melbourne on the Park

Event Overview

The Australian Association of Stomal Therapy Nurses (AASTN) 2025 Conference will be held at The Pullman Melbourne on The Park, from Wednesday 30 April 2025 to Friday 2 May 2025 offering sponsors opportunities for engagement and brand exposure with a targeted audience.

The 2025 Committee expects the Melbourne Conference to attract over 250 attendees from Australia and overseas. This will provide your brand the ability to network directly with delegates, other businesses, industry leaders, and potential partners.

Sponsors will be able to track and retain connections made at the Conference through lead retrieval and a delegate list, which in turn help sponsors measure their return on investment.

About AASTN

AASTN is also dedicated to the maintenance and improvement of professional standards in relation to Stomal Therapy Nursing Practice. As nurses provide care for patients and clients across the life span, they recognise the importance of developing expertise and high-level industry standards in preventative, acute and rehabilitative practice.
