

Women in Technology

Monday 12pm - 5pm 8 September 2025

Co-hosted by the University of Auckland and AUT

11.30am

Registration open

12pm

Lunch

12.45pm

Welcome

1pm

Keynote speaker

Dr. Mahsa McCauley (Mohaghegh)

Associate Professor at Auckland University of Technology, Co-Director of the STEM-TEC Centre at AUT, Chair of AI Forum NZ, founder of She Sharp, a non-profit dedicated to empowering women and non-binary individuals in STEM.

1.45pm

Panel discussion

Welcome to our Women in Technology panel, where we explore the power of education, transformation, and connection.

Panel

Liz Gosling, Chief Technology Officer & CISO, AUT

Celia Eggleston, Practice Lead – Leadership & Transformation UoA

Hemi David, Datacom - Advocate for supporting women in technology

Tania Bailey, Business Development Account Manager, Slalom

Steph Langford, Business Relationship Manager, UoA

Andrew Patterson, Deputy Dean, Faculty of Business & Economics Admin UoA

Moderator: Lynette Farrell, Head of Performance & Modernisation, UoA

2.45pm

Afternoon tea

3pm

"Let's get connected"

Ritika Singh

3.15pm

Speaker 2

Ritika Singh

Director & Founder Ri-Think and Global Talent

4pm

Speaker 3

Mahek Nangia

Solutions Architect at Amazon Web Services (AWS)

4.30pm

Wrap up – prize draw

REGISTER NOW

<https://www.tertiaryictconference.co.nz/registration>