

Dr Justine Rogers

Deputy Director, Future of Law and Innovation in the Profession (FLIP) research stream

Day 1 – Plenary

The Trusted Legal Profession

9.00am – 9.45am

About Dr Justine Rogers

Dr Justine Rogers is the Deputy Director of the Future of Law and Innovation in the Profession (flip) research stream, a strategic partnership between the New South Wales Law Society and UNSW.

She is a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Law & Justice at UNSW, where she convenes and teaches the core legal ethics course as well as one of legal theory strands. Previously, Justine was a chief investigator in an Australian Research Council Linkage project with the Professional Standards Councils on professionalism and professional regulation in the 21st Century. Justine is a member of the Board of Directors of the Australian Pro Bono Centre.