

Mining and Automotive Skills Alliance

Presenter name: Simon Hester

21 November- Hobart

AUSMASAs Training Packages

- AUR- Automotive Retail, Service and Repair
- AUM- Automotive Manufacturing
- RII- Resources and Infrastructure Industry (mining)

Bus Industry Operators- Manufacturers- Suppliers

Workforce Planning

- Higher education pathways
- Higher Apprenticeships
- Skilled migration and international students
- Industry culture and workforce diversity
- First Nations engagement
- Mentoring of apprentices
- Technological advancement
- Pay and role classification
- Scaffolding of learning
- Digitisation and automation

AUSMASA Current AAS Projects

1. Resource Development: Certificate II in Autonomous Workplace Operations
2. Review and update of the RII emergency response qualifications
3. Training package review of superseded units of competency
4. Review into VET training products with low and no enrolments
5. Market research into youth perceptions of automotive careers
6. Development of hydrogen fuel cell EV training products
7. Review of the Certificate II in Automotive Tyre Servicing Technology
8. Review of Emergency Response training products (RII)

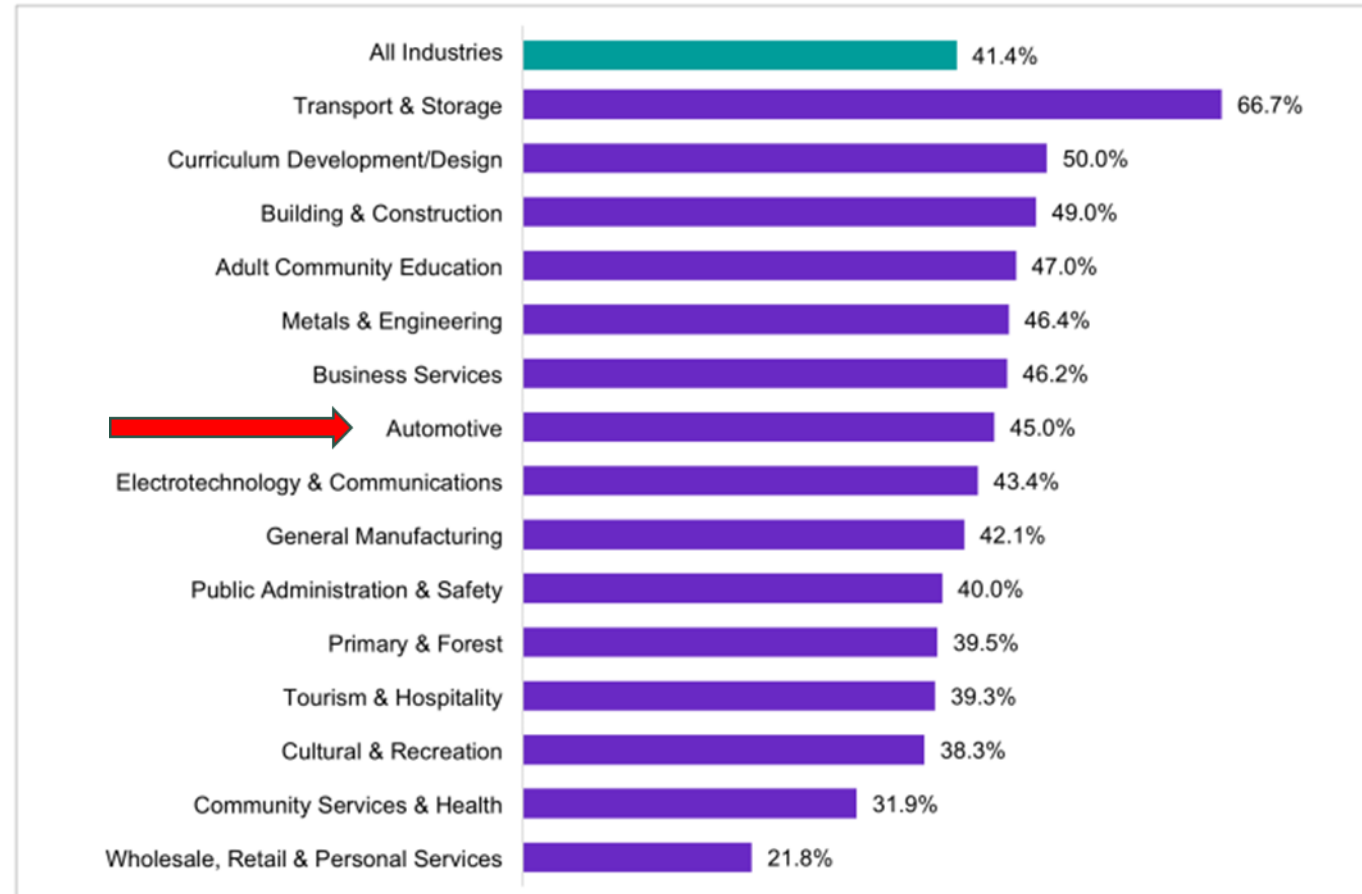

VET Workforce Project

VET Workforce Blueprint

Figure 2.6 Proportion of VET teachers aged 55 years and older across industry areas in Victorian TAFE institutes

Source: Supplied by the Victorian Public Service Commission.

Thank you

The Mining and Automotive Skills Alliance (AUSMASA) is a Jobs and Skills Council funded by the Australian Government Department of Employment and Workplace Relations.

