COMPLIANCE LAWS and BUSINESS ETHICS

The Bus Industry Confederation warrants, represents and undertakes that it, as well as, as applicable, its affiliates, officers, directors, employees and others acting for or on its behalf, will not use the partnership fee to engage in any unlawful or unethical acts. The Conference Partner has complied and shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

The Bus Industry Confederation will notify the conference partner as soon as it becomes aware, or as soon as is practicable after becoming aware, of any allegation or indication of a breach of any Australian Laws.

In addition to any other remedies it may have under this Agreement or at law, the conference partner may terminate or suspend this partnership agreement immediately by written notice to that effect, without liability, and is entitled to immediately claim back the partnership fee if the Bus Industry Confederation has, or the Conference Partner reasonably suspects that it has, breached this Clause. In the event of a breach, the Bus Industry Confederation will indemnify and hold Conference Partner harmless against any claims, losses, or damages arising from it. For the avoidance of doubt, a termination pursuant to this provision shall not affect those of Conference Partner's rights in this Agreement which are stated to survive its termination.
