Fiona O'Farrell | Education Specialist | Xero

Fiona O'Farrell has been part of the education team at Xero for over 3 years, where she's become a trusted expert in helping small businesses across Australia and New Zealand.

Her work focuses on empowering business owners to master their finances, particularly by leveraging Xero to improve cash flow management. She helps business owners not only get the most out of their software, but also build the confidence to make smart, strategic decisions that directly impact their bottom line.
