

Andrew Barter*Director, Tough Problem

Andrew has over 20 years in management and is able to complement his extensive experience with various tertiary qualifications including accounting, company turnarounds, project management and general management (MBA). Andrew has gained vast knowledge across various industry sectors including Banking, Insurance, IT, Allied Health, Governments, SMEs, Manufacturing and Family Businesses.

Andrew has a proven track record of understanding what the client wants to achieve and is able to manage the process of turning Strategy into Action. Andrew also has had extensive experience working with family businesses and have assisted them with navigating the various complexities and challenges these businesses and families face.

Andrew is a member of the Turnaround Management Association (Australia and International), a Family Business Australia (FBA) Forum Facilitator, FBA Specialist Accredited Advisor and Member of the FBA (Qld) State Committee. Andrew is also a member of the USA's Family Firm Institute Inc and holds several directorships at private companies and family business councils.