Location and Accommodation

Located 90 minutes drive from Sydney CBD or two hours via public transport, the 12-hectare Sinofield property is nestled in natural Australian bushland on the land of the Darug people. The retreat features 24 generously sized rooms, each with an ensuite bathroom and some with private courtyards, totalling 60 beds.

Function Spaces

Whether you require expansive function rooms, intimate classrooms, or versatile outdoor areas, we can host meetings, small conferences, professional development sessions, educational activities, outdoor events, and much more.

Meals and Catering

Meals are prepared onsite by dedicated kitchen staff, ensuring fresh, high-quality offerings for every dining experience.

Group Activities

Sinofield Edu Retreat offers a variety of group activities designed to enhance team-building and educational experiences. These activities range from nature walks and bush explorations to more structured workshops and seminars.
