

EDUCATION RETREATS

WITH SINOFIELD EDU RETREAT • LEURA NSW

OPEN DAY

7th & 8th March 2025

Association members and their families are invited to an open day weekend at Sinofield Education Retreat in Leura NSW.

Discover how Sinofield Edu Retreat can enrich your educational experience

Open Day Weekend Stay

$55 per booking

Including venue tour, accommodation, meals and activities. Families are welcome and attend for free.

Open Day Single Day

Free

Including meals and activities.

RSVP Friday 28 February

Registration click here

Sinofield Edu Retreat, located in the Blue Mountains, offers a unique environment tailored for both educators and students. Educators can find inspiration and renewal in our serene surroundings. Our versatile facilities support workshops, training, and team-building in a peaceful setting that fosters creativity and reflection.

For students, the retreat's natural beauty enhances learning experiences, making educational camps and excursions both engaging and memorable. The combination of structured activities and outdoor exploration supports both academic and personal growth.

2025 Open Day Program

Friday 7th March

- 15:00 - 17:30 Venue Tour & Check-In
Guests arrive, check into rooms, and explore the retreat. Free time to enjoy Leura and the surrounding area.
- 18:00 - 19:30 Dinner & Networking
Speech at dinner table by John Meng about collaboration between CLTANSW and Sinofield.
- 19:30 - 21:00 Fireplace Soiree
Relax around fireplace, share stories, and network with fellow attendees.

Saturday 8th March

- 8:00 - 9:30 Breakfast
- 10:00 - 10:30 Smoking Ceremony
Led by Chris Tobin, acknowledging the land and cultural significance.
- 10:30 - 11:30 Opening & Keynote Presentation
Welcome speeches by David Browne. Presentation by Chris Tobin on Indigenous perspectives in education.
- 11:30 - 12:00 Morning Tea Break
- 12:00 - 13:00 Guest Speaker Sessions
Rowe Morrow from Permaculture Representative from Blue Mountains Grammar School
- 13:00 - 14:00 Lunch Break
- 14:00 - 15:00 Open Discussion & Networking
Facilitated by Juan Roberson, Katoomba Rotary Club.
- 15:00 Closing Ceremony
Final remarks and event wrap-up.

Location and Accommodation

Located 90 minutes drive from Sydney CBD or two hours via public transport, the 12-hectare Sinofield property is nestled in natural Australian bushland on the land of the Darug people. The retreat features 24 generously sized rooms, each with an ensuite bathroom and some with private courtyards, totalling 60 beds.

Function Spaces

Whether you require expansive function rooms, intimate classrooms, or versatile outdoor areas, we can host meetings, small conferences, professional development sessions, educational activities, outdoor events, and much more.

Meals and Catering

Meals are prepared onsite by dedicated kitchen staff, ensuring fresh, high-quality offerings for every dining experience.

Group Activities

Sinofield Edu Retreat offers a variety of group activities designed to enhance team-building and educational experiences. These activities range from nature walks and bush explorations to more structured workshops and seminars.

Open Day RSVP Friday 28 February

For more information including registration visit www.ptc.nsw.edu.au/education-retreats/

Registration click here

