

Saturday 29 March

Holly Siles - TAFE NSW Fashion Design Studio

Holly has worked as a designer in the fashion industry for over 18 years. She brings extensive experience and deep industry knowledge to the classroom. Holly has won numerous awards throughout her career.

Holly will take you through a variety of fashion design development techniques and teach you how to render different fabric textures using a variety of media.

Below is an example of a design and illustration worksheet and demonstration drawings.

