

RANZCOG

Tasmania GP O&G

Update Day

Hotel Grand Chancellor, Hobart

Saturday 2 March 2019

The Royal Australian and New Zealand
College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists

Excellence in Women's Health

GP O&G Update Day Program: Saturday 2 March 2019

Time	Activity	Speaker
8.40 – 8.55	Registration
8.55 – 9.00	Welcome	Dr Meg Creely and Dr Lindsay Edwards
9.00 – 10.00	Pre-term Birth Prevention	Professor John Newnham Maternal Fetal Medicine specialist; Professor of Obstetrics
10.00 – 10.30	Antenatal screening for genetic and structural abnormalities in pregnancy	Dr Lindsay Edwards Obstetrician
10.30 – 11.00	Morning Tea
11.00 – 11.30	Preeclampsia screening and prevention	Dr Nicole Inglis O&G Accredited Registrar
11.30 – 12.00	Risk Factors for Stillbirth	Dr Lindsay Edwards Obstetrician
12.00 – 12.30	Vulval Itch and Common Urogynaecology Complaints	Dr Naomi Saunder Obstetrician and Gynaecologist
12.30 – 13.00	What's new in Fertility Treatment	Dr Emily Price Obstetrician and Gynaecologist
13.00 – 13.30	Lunch

13.30 – 15.15	Interactive Multidisciplinary Session: Care of the Postpartum Woman and Infant <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Postpartum physiology, complex conditions and common postpartum problems - Common pelvic floor problems - Tongue tie and breast feeding problems - Care of the ex-NICU infant 	Dr Lindsay Edwards Obstetrician Ms Monika Sroczynski Senior Physiotherapist, Women's and Children's Services Ms Christina Galloway Midwife, Lactation Consultant Dr Naomi Spotswood Neonatologist
15.15 – 15.45	Afternoon Tea
15.45 – 16.15	Endometriosis	Dr Emily Price Obstetrician and Gynaecologist
16.15 – 16.45	Termination of pregnancy in Tasmania	Dr Naomi Saunder Obstetrician and Gynaecologist
16.45 – 17.00	Evaluation and Close

Learning Outcomes:

- Diagnose and treat medical conditions and complications in pregnancy.
- Discuss management of infertility and refer to appropriate specialist/s for further review where required.
- Recognise and manage common postpartum complaints.
- Review common gynaecological conditions and use relevant treatment options.
- Evaluate advances in screening technology in women's health and use recommended guidelines as appropriate, including in the management of termination of pregnancy.