THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE Adelaide Health & Medical Sciences Building

The Adelaide Health and Medical Sciences building is located on the corner of North Terrace and George Street, just east from the SAHMRI and is the second building after the Convention Centre/Morphett Street bridge.

The Adelaide Health Simulation centre is located on level 2 of the building which can be accessed either by the escalators, stairs (at either ends of the building) or the lift located at the western end of the building. The main entrance to the centre is at the eastern end, approximately where the escalators come to.

If you have any problems finding the Simulation Centre please phone our main number 8313 5101 or Sam on 0417 610 930.
