About Aotearoa ASM 2023

Our theme for ASM 2023 is:

What matters in health? | Tukua mai kia piri, tukua mai kia tata

Aotearoa's health system is focused on pae ora or wellbeing for all. RANZCOG's Aotearoa ASM 2023 will examine the definition of health. Sessions will focus on the breadth of what matters in health from evidence-based practice through to patient perspectives.

Our whakatauāki translates to 'Come hither, converge to the bosom of my people'. It is gifted to our ASM by Te Arawa, as a welcome and also as an encouragement for us to come together to help shape and reform the health system, no matter where we are from.

RANZCOG Aotearoa ASM 2023 seeks to engage everyone in conversation about pae ora and what matters in health for obstetrics and gynaecology.

Aotearoa NZ ASM 2023 Organising Committee

About The Royal and New Zealand College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists (RANZCOG)

RANZCOG trains and accredits doctors throughout Australia and New Zealand in the specialties of obstetrics and gynaecology so that they can provide the highest standards of health care. The College also supports research and acts as an advocate for women's health care by forging productive relationships with individuals, the community and professional organisations, both locally and internationally. Further details of College activities can be found at www.ranzcog.edu.au.

Te Kāhui Oranga ō Nuku supports RANZCOG activities in Aotearoa New Zealand, focusing on the context of the New Zealand health system, the needs of wāhine and whānau in Aotearoa New Zealand and Te Tiriti o Waitangi. There are approximately 340 RANZCOG specialists in New Zealand and around 135 RANZCOG trainees, with wider membership in Australia.

Who are the participants?

The meeting will attract a wide range of specialists and trainees working in the field of obstetrics and gynaecology from throughout Aotearoa New Zealand.

Being part of the conference provides our business partners with an excellent opportunity for face to face discussions with attendees and to sharpen their profile in the women's health. Your participation demonstrates your company's commitment to the delivery of excellent health care to women and their babies and allows specialists in this field the opportunity to stay up to date with your innovative products. We have around 100 RANZCOG members attending each year.
