DELEGATE PROFILE

The conference will attract 150+ multidisciplinary delegates, including child and adolescent psychiatrists, forensic psychiatrists, psychologists, researchers, trainees, and allied mental health professionals. Attendees are key clinical decision-makers and influencers working across youth mental health, neurodevelopment, trauma, and forensic psychiatry.

This highly engaged audience offers valuable opportunities for meaningful industry engagement, education, and collaboration, with delegates actively seeking innovative treatments, emerging research, and evidence-based approaches to complex child and adolescent mental health challenges.
